Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board and CEO

Intering his 43rd year as Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board and CEO of the Titans/Oilers franchise, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. is an enduring figure in the NFL. As one of the original team owners in the American Football League, he has guided his franchise to heights since relocating to new Nashville in 1997, posting an AFC-best 33 wins over the last three seasons, an AFC Championship in 1999 and an AFC Central title in 2000. Last season, he became just the seventh current NFL owner to reach the 300-win plateau. Lamar Hunt (Kansas City/Dallas), Al Davis (Oakland/Los Angeles), Wellington Mara (N.Y. Giants), Ralph Wilson (Buffalo), Art Modell (Cleveland/Baltimore) and Dan Rooney (Pittsburgh).

A native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Adams' interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver in 1940, Adams attended Menlo College (California), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams met his future wife Nancy Neville and began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

In 1942, while still in school at KU, Adams joined the U.S. Naval Reserve. In July 1943, he was called to active duty in the Navy's V-12 college program. In early 1944, he received orders to report to Midshipman Officer Specialty School at Notre Dame where he earned his Navy ensign commission in an accelerated 60-day program. He was sent overseas and was assigned to a PAC-Fleet carrier unit, where he served as an aviation engineering officer. He returned to the U.S. in December 1945. Lt. jg Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington D.C. prior to his discharge in 1946.

Adams parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly-successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the prominent businessmen in the country.

In 1946, Adams started ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. (AE), an energy company engaged in the business of marketing crude oil, natural gas and petroleum products; tank truck transportation of liquid chemicals; and oil and gas exploration and production. Adams' other business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, and a travel agency. He has been a longtime collector of Western art and Native American artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams, a year-round sports fan, was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports was further evidenced by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

Football history was made in Adams' office in Houston on August 3, 1959, where he and Lamar Hunt held a press conference to announce formation of the new American Football League, which would begin playing in 1960. Hunt would have a team in Dallas, Adams would have a team in Houston, and other teams would be forthcoming.

In his fifth decade as founder, owner, chairman and CEO of the Tennessee Titans (formerly Houston Oilers and Tennessee Oilers), the hardworking and aggressive Adams has made professional football history numerous times. In 1968, Adams' Oilers became the first NFL team to play their home games indoors by moving into Houston's Astrodome. A team rich in tradition and pride, the Oilers were in the dominant team the American Football League during the 10-year era (1960-69), playing in the championship game four times (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967) - and winning twice consecutively (1960, 1961); earning four AFL Eastern Division Vanderbilt University.

Championships (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967); and making the playoffs five years out of 10 (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967,1969). In 1970, the AFL merged into the expanded NFL, and Adams' teams made the playoffs 12 times (1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1999, 2000). In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. In 2000, the franchise captured its third AFC Central Division Championship after winning the division in both 1991 and 1993.

The Houston Oilers played their final season in 1996 at the Houston Astrodome. In 1997, Adams led the National Football League into the Mid-South region, the last untapped area without a major professional sport. That feat allowed his team to be the first NFL franchise to call "the Volunteer State" home. During construction of the Coliseum in Nashville, the Tennessee Oilers played the 1997 season at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, and the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville.

On July 29, 1998, Adams announced that the Oilers' name would be changed for the 1999 season. The Oilers' name was retired by the NFL – a first in league history – allowing the Tennessee franchise to retain the team's winning tradition, and launching a new era in the Mid-South.

On behalf of the Tennessee Titans Foundation, Adams awarded a grant of $25,000 for playground improvements at the Susan Gray School for Children at Vanderbilt University.

Bud Adams presented $70,000 to representatives of 13 charities during the 2002 Golf Tournament Luncheon, raising the four-year total of the event to $362,000.

The Tennessee Titans made their debut in 1999. In Greek mythology, Titans were men of strength and power. The Titan Prometheus brought fire to man; and the Titans of today brought fire to the football fans in the Mid-South during a very memorable inaugural season, unveiling a new name, stadium, training facility, logo, uniform and colors. Adams personally selected T-Rac as the team's new mascot.

In three seasons as the Titans, the franchise has won the American Football Conference Championship for the 1999 season (culminating in a trip to Super Bowl XXXIV in Atlanta, where the Titans were defeated by the Rams in one of the most exciting games in Super Bowl history), captured the AFC Central Division Championship (2000), the best record in the AFC with a 33-15 mark, the best AFC home record at 18-6 and the loyalty of millions of fans across the nation and throughout the world. The popularity of the Titans has translated into 42 consecutive sell-outs at the Coliseum and a number three ranking among NFL teams in merchandise sales during the years 2000 and 2001.

During Adams' illustrious career, fiftythree of his players have been Pro Bowl selections, including an AFL and NFL Most Valuable Player. Also, five of Adams' players, including Mike Munchak in 2000, have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In recognition of the 40th season of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans organization, Adams created an official team hall of fame at the Coliseum that will feature players and staff from the past, while creating a special place for Titans stars of the future to be recognized.

Adams chairs the Titans Executive Committee and is currently a working member on several prominent NFL committees, including the NFL's Finance, Hall Fame and new Legal/ Legislative Committees, and is a Trustee for the NFL Trust. Very active in national, state and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Governors of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America - Sam Houston Area Council: and a Lifetime Director of The Hundred Club in Houston. He is an Emeritus Trustee of the Culver Educational Foundation; and is a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Tennessee, he is on the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Council of the Boy Scouts of America: a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and on the Board of Trust of the 100 Club of Nashville.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. Most recently, the Tennessee General Assembly honored him and the Titans at the State Capitol. He was awarded the Community Spirit Award by the Nashville Sports Council at the 3rd Annual American General Dinner of Champions in February 2001; was honored by the Cherokee National Historical Society at a dinner at the Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa, Okla., in Sept. 2000; was honored at Tennessee State University in August 2000; was the recipient of the Lamar Hunt Outstanding Pro Football Executive Award for the vear 2000 from the All-American Football Foundation; and in March 2000, he received the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Silver Hope Chest Award in Nashville, In 1997, he was honored by Sigma Chi Fraternity with a formal portrait and bust on permanent display in the foyer and museum of their Evanston, Illinois, headquarters. He was inducted into Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in 1994. In 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In 1990, he was given Sigma Foundation's Semi-Centennial Chi Award.

Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included the 1988 prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" from the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau; and the 1987 Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). He was named 1983 "King Capon" by Bill Williams' Annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.; 1981 "Man of the Year" by Culver Military Academy; 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer" by Financial World Magazine; 1980 "Distinguished Alumnus" by California Community and Junior College Association; "Westerner of the Year" by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; 1963 "Significant Sig" by Sigma Chi Fraternity; 1961 "Mr. Sportsman" by the Interfaith Charity Group; and 1960 "Houston Salesman of the Year" by the Houston Sales Association.

Adams and his wife Nancy will celebrate their 56th wedding anniversary in October 2002. They have two daughters: Susie Smith and Amy Strunk, and seven grandchildren. Their son Kenneth S. Adams III is deceased.

ADAMS IN THE COMMUNITY

cootball fans in the Mid-South applauded the relocation of the Titans to Tennessee in 1997, but local charities should raise a cheer as well. Since the Titans moved to Tennessee. local charities have seen $7.5 million dollars flow into their organizations as a direct result of the Titans and the NFL. The great majority of the money and gifts have come from Mr. Adams and the Titans Foundation.

In recognition of his many charitable endeavors, the Nashville Sports Council presented the "2000 Community Spirit Award" to Adams at their annual Dinner of Champions on February 1, 2000. The award was given for Adams' "countless charitable contributions that helped so many in the Metro Nashville community during 1999."

Adams and his wife Nancy have given generously to many charitable organizations over the years. After Tropical Storm Allison devastated the Houston area in June 2001 with more than 30 inches of rain, Adams contributed $100,000 to the "Spirit of Texas Fund" established by the Red Cross to aid flood victims. Houston Texans owner Bob McNair and NFL Charities also contributed $100,000 each for a combined gift of $300,000 to the fund.

In 1998, Mr. and Mrs. Adams teamed with NFL Charities to donate $200,000 to help families in East Nashville following a devastating tornado.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams established the Tennessee Titans Foundation in 1999 with an initial gift of $500,000. The Foundation offers financial support and other resources to non-profit organizations throughout Tennessee. Committed gifts for the balance of the 2002 season will raise the total amount donated by the Tennessee Titans Foundation to more than $725,000 in less than three-and-one-half years of operation. The largest fundraiser for the Titans Foundation is the annual Titans Charity Golf Classic, which has generated $362,000 in four events.

Adams and his wife, Nancy, have given generously to the greater Nashville community.

The Titans contributed more than $2.2 million over the last four years (1999-2002) to the NFL for the youth football fund, $465,000 of which was spent within the Titans' market. The NFL community affairs department uses this fund to improve youth football programs and facilities nationwide.

Over the last three years (1999-2001), $1.8 million has been raised for approximately 120 charitable organizations through volunteers working in Coliseum concession booths. They money volunteers would have been paid instead went to their favorite charities, all of which benefited from Titans home games being played.

The Titans also worked with AmSouth and Channel 5 in co-sponsoring "America's Fund" which raised $664,000, including a $75,000 personal gift from Mr. and Mrs. Adams and $25,000 from the Titans organization, for victims of the Sept. 11 tragedies.

Adams' gifts have not been limited to cash donations. He gave the "trip of a lifetime" to Super Bowl XXXIV in Atlanta to 40 Nashville teenagers and 10 chaperones that were chosen from six local charities. "Bud's Kids" were treated to 50-yard-line seats and a three-night stay at the Titans' team hotel and a trip home on the team's 747-charter airplane.

Adams donated Super Bowl tickets to the Nashville Red Cross during a time when their available blood supply was at a critically low stage. Blood donors were eligible to win two Super Bowl tickets, and the "Super Bowl Blood Drive" resulted in 3,549 pints of blood, one of the most successful drives in the history of Nashville.

Adams donated a pair of Super Bowl tickets to be raffled off to help pay medical expenses for Kaia Jergenson, a member of the David Lipscomb University women's basketball team, who lost her legs due to bacterial meningitis.

The team's historic 1999 Super Bowl season saw Adams get heavily involved in area schools with three unique programs. He established a statewide art contest that spotlighted the importance of art in education and also added some Tennessee artistic flair to the Coliseum.

The art contest was open to high school students (grades 9-12) and resulted in 150 winning entries that hung in the suites at the stadium. One winner from each grade won $1,000 with runners-up in each grade winning $750 each. Adams rewarded area sixth, seventh and eighth grade students for their hard work by donating 3,500 pairs of tickets to the inaugural game in the Coliseum versus the Falcons.

He purchased more than 500 copies of "Tennessee: A History" and presented them to seventh grade history classes at public schools across the state. Wilma Dykeman is the author of the book and was a member of the Titans Advisory Board of Directors that aided Adams in selecting the new name and logo for the franchise.

Adams spearheaded the drive for construction and operation of the original Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The team also hosted a biannual fundraising gala from 1978-94, which raised more than $3.5 million to support, operate and provide the permanent endowment of that Ronald McDonald House.

Gifts Adams Has Generated for Tennessee Charities

Adams has generated $7.5 million for Tennessee Charities since the team moved to Tennessee in 1997, including the below gifts:

- $760,000 in gifts to the various charities in the greater Memphis area (1997 and 1998)
- $210,000 in gifts to United Way of Metropolitan Nashville

- $80,000 grant to upgrade youth football field at Nashville's Martin Luther King Magnet School
- $53,500 in gifts to the Junior League of Nashville
- $50,000 commitment to Boy Scouts of America
- $41,000 in gifts to Habitat for Humanity
- $25,000 gift to Fannie Battle Day Home
- $25,000 gift to Susan Gray School for Children at Vanderbilt University
- $25,000 gift to American Cancer Society for the Hope Lodge
- $25,000 commitment to Girl Scouts of America
- $11,000 gift to Martha O'Bryan Center
- $11,000 in gifts to W.O. Smith / Nashville Community Music School
- $11,000 gift to Nashville Family Shelter
- $10,000 gift to Nashville school district to underwrite teen violence video
- $10,000 gift to Taft Youth Development Center
- Approximately 60 additional organizations in Tennessee have received gifts ranging up to $10,000 since 1997.

Best Boss for the Buck

"Bud Adams is a big ol' bargain" read Forbes.com on April 26, 2001

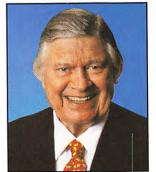

Porbes, the influential business magazine, has developed a formula to determine which "Forbes 500" CEO delivers the best value to his shareholders in relation to his annual salary – the "best boss for the buck," as Forbes terms it. No. 2 on the list of Forbes' published survey of "Best Value Bosses" is Adams Resources & Energy chief executive officer K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., who also owns the Tennessee Titans. Without explaining Forbes' intricate formula here, only Warren Buffett, CEO of Berkshire Hathaway, was ranked above

Adams for the most productive boss for pay they received. Paying himself a total of just over $1 million during the past five years, Adams' energy company increased sales by 46 percent over that time to almost $7 billion. "I try to hire the right guys and I pay them a lot more than I get," Forbes quoted Adams. "But they add to the bottom line."

JEFF DIAMOND

President and Chief Operating Officer

Jeff Diamond enters his fourth season as the Titans' President/Chief Operating Officer and his 27th NFL season in 2001.

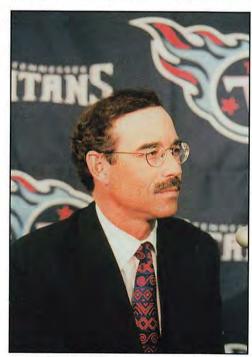

In July, 1999, Diamond became the first person other than Titans owner and founder K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. to hold the title of team president when Adams hired him following the move to Tennessee.

Diamond is responsible for both football and non-football operations in Nashville for the Titans. He works closely with EVP/General Manager Floyd Reese and EVP/General Counsel Steve Underwood on salary cap planning and player contracts and with Reese and EVP/Head Coach Jeff Fisher on team roster decisions and planning. He also works with EVP/Administration Don MacLachlan in overseeing the Titans' administration, sales and marketing areas and with VP of Community Affairs Bob Hyde in planning the Titans' community and charitable activities. He is involved in Club financial planning and oversees the management of Baptist Sports Park and the Coliseum. He also attends NFL meetings as a club representative, and is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

In his three years with the Titans, Diamond has presided over a remarkable period for the franchise as they finally settled into the Coliseum and the Nashville community. On the field, the team ranks first in the AFC in wins over the last three seasons with 33 and wins at home with 18. Off the field, the Titans have enjoyed a franchise record 42 consecutive sellouts (preseason, regular season and postseason included), which is the longest in franchise history and rank in the top 10 in the league in luxury suite occupancy with 175.

Diamond joined the Titans after serving as the Minnesota Vikings' Senior Vice President of Football

Diamond's experience has benefited the Titans, both on and off the football field.

Operations. He spent 23 years with the Vikings organization after joining them in 1976 as assistant PR director.

Over his 26 years in the NFL, teams that Diamond has been associated with have qualified for the playoffs 16 times, have won nine division championships and two conference championships (with Vikings playing in Super Bowl XI and the Titans playing in Super Bowl XXXIV).

He was named Senior Vice President of Football Operations in August 1998, and he negotiated all player contracts and oversaw player personnel, the coaching staff, all other team operations, and served as the Vikings' liaison with the NFL office and other clubs on scheduling matters. He was very involved in the planning and building of the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. He was a member of the Executive Committee of the Minnesota Super Bowl Task Force, which planned Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome.

In March 1999, Diamond was named the NFL's "Executive of the Year" by The Sporting News after the Vikings ended the 1998 season with a leaguebest 15-1 mark during the regular season en route to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

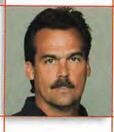

Diamond is actively involved in the Nashville and Middle Tennessee community. He is on the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee for United Way of Metropolitan Nashville, the Board of Governors for the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors for the YMCA of Middle Tennessee and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. He also is a member of The Exchange Club of Nashville and is the Titans' representative on the "One for the Community" program that provides financial support for area schools and education.

A native Minnesotan, Diamond attended St. Louis Park High School in Minneapolis and then graduated from the University of Minnesota with honors and played soccer for the Golden Gophers. Jeff's wife Diane also is active in Nashville community organizations and oversees the Titans Women's Organization. Jeff and Diane have two children, Brett (20) and Brooke (17).

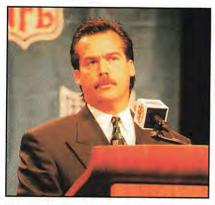

JEFF FISHER

EVP and Head Coach

Jeff Fisher is entering his eighth season as head coach of the Tennessee Titans and his third as Executive Vice President. Fisher is the franchise's winningest coach with 68 victories and is the fourth youngest coach (43) to win 60 regular season games since 1960. Only Don Shula (38), John Madden (39) and Bill Cowher (40) were faster to 60 wins. He also ranks second, behind Cowher, in seniority among NFL head coaches. He is the Co-Chairman of the NFL's Rules Committee, where he has served for three years, and is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

In 2000, Fisher became only the fifth coach in NFL history to lead his team to consecutive 13-win seasons, joining Mike Ditka (Chicago Bears, 1985-86), George Seifert (San Francisco, 1989-90), Marv Levy (Buffalo Bills, 1990-91) and Mike Holmgren (Green Bay Packers, 1996-97).

Fisher is the franchise's winningest coach with 68 victories and is the fourth youngest coach (43) to win 60 regular season games since 1960.

Building on the success the Titans had during the 1999 season would be tough to accomplish, but Fisher followed the team's first AFC championship in 1999 with an AFC Central crown and the league's best record in 2000. It was the first time in franchise history that the Titans/Oilers owned the NFL's best record (13-3) and only the third time the club won the AFC Central.

Fisher's teams have always been known for their toughness, physical play and aggressive defense. In each of his seven full seasons as head coach, the Titans/Oilers ranked in the top 10 in run defense, a streak that leads the league. The defense reached a new level of success in 2000, earning the number one ranking in the NFL for yards allowed and surrendering the third lowest point total in the league since 1977. Fisher's teams are also mentally strong, flourishing on the road where many teams will wilt. Since 1995, the Titans/Oilers have amassed the best road record in the NFL with a 32-24 mark during that time.

Fisher, the Titans and Middle Tennesseans will fondly remember the accomplishments of the 1999 season. which brought the team its first AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXIV. Fisher and the Titans defeated AFC Central champion Jacksonville three times in 1999, handing the Jaguars their only losses. As a Wild Card team, the Titans had the most difficult route to the Super Bowl. Fisher earned his first postseason victory by defeating Buffalo 22-16, and erased a 16-0 deficit in one of the biggest displays of heart in any second half of

Super Bowl history against the Rams. The Titans became only the sixth team to earn a trip to the Super Bowl since the NFL added the Wild Card playoff team in 1978. Fisher guided the Titans to a streak of 13 consecutive wins against AFC Central Division opponents dating back to 1998. It marked the longest streak in the history of the Central Division and the third longest in the merger.

Fisher originally joined the Oilers' coaching staff on February 9, 1994, after spending two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher was a perfect fit for the Oilers. who were looking for a young, aggressive coach with experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for many years with former Oilers Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. Fisher took over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993, but had lost several key components to free agency. He was elevated to head coach on November 14, 1994, replacing Jack Pardee, for the final six games of the season.

A former defensive back in college at the University of Southern California, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included future NFL stars Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Joey Browner. Titans offensive lineman Bruce Matthews also was one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. The versatile Fisher also served as the Trojans' backup kicker and earned PAC-10 All-Academic honors in 1980.

Originally a seventh-round draft selection of the Chicago Bears in 1981, Fisher appeared in 49 games as a defensive back and return specialist in five seasons. He earned a Super Bowl ring after Chicago's 1985 Super Bowl season, despite spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prema> turely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher began post-playing career by assisting Ryan as an "unofficial" coach while the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. He left Chicago in 1985 holding a number of team records including: number punt return yards for a season with 509 yards in 1981, number of punt returns in a season with 58 in 1984, and number

Fisher ranks second behind Pittsburgh's Bill of punt returns in one game with eight on December 16, 1984, at Detroit. He also recorded the longest punt return by a Bear in 39 years with an 88-yard return for a TD on September 20, 1981, against Tampa Bay.

Fisher began his coaching career as an assistant for Ryan and the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986, tutoring the defensive backs for three seasons before becoming the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1988. One year later, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in interceptions (30) and quarterback sacks (62).In 1990. Philadelphia's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in OB sacks.

Cowher in seniority among NFL head coaches and is the Co-Chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

JEFF FISHER

In 1991, Fisher headed west to be reunited with his college coach Robinson, serving as the Los Angeles Rams' defensive coordinator before joining the 49ers one year later.

A native of Southern Calif., Fisher was a high school All-America wide receiver for the Toreadors of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif. Fisher is an avid golfer and fisherman. He also does considerable work off the field that does not receive much attention. He generously donates time and money to a number of different charities, including the hosting of a celebrity softball game that raises money for local charities and a coach's clinic for youth/high school coaches in the Mid-South. This past spring, Fisher completed his first marathon when he ran in the Music City Marathon. In 2001, Fisher was named the winner of the Horrigan Award, given by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL representative that is the most cooperative with the media. Additionally, Fisher was named the 2000 Tennessean of the Year by Nashville's Tennessean and 1999 Sports Person of the year by the Nashville Sports Council.

Jeff (born 2/25/58) and his wife, Juli, a former Rose Bowl Princess, have three children: sons Brandon (age 15) and Trenton (age 10), and daughter Tara (age 13).

DON MACLACHLAN

EVP of Administration

Don MacLachlan is in his 12th season with the Titans and his fifth as Executive Vice President/Administration. He is responsible for all non-football operations with the organization and is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

Since arriving in Nashville, he has played an aggressive role in securing team sponsorships and corporate relationships, while interfacing with the Titans' radio and broadcasting partners. MacLachlan has spearheaded excitement surrounding the team, built a fun and festive experience for fans at home games, and worked hard to link the organization with the greater Nashville community and the entire Mid-South region.

MacLachlan's efforts helped launch a successful campaign in 1999 that increased the team's recognition throughout the region. Under his leadership, the club has sold-out a franchiserecord 42 consecutive home games, which is the longest streak in franchise history. For the third consecutive season, the club also established a new record for home attendance with 550,393 fans. The team's radio network is comprised of over 60 stations in the Mid-South and ranks as one of the largest in the league. In addition, MacLachlan helped oversee the club's move to Nashville in 1997.

The Detroit native started his tenure with the then-Houston Oilers in March 1991, as Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting. He was elevated to Senior Vice President in 1994 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting and Ticketing in 1997. MacLachlan oversaw marketing, media, community relations, and the ticket office while in Houston. He also served as the liaison between both the radio and television rights-holders. MacLachlan administered off the field operations in both Memphis and Nashville during the club's first season in Tennessee in 1997.

MacLachlan began his career in 1978 in the athletic department at Northwestern University in Chicago, where he worked for 13 years. He first served as both Assistant Sports Information Director and Golf Coach. In 1981, MacLachlan was named Athletic Ticket Manager, and he was promoted to Under MacLachlan's leadership, the Titans have sold-out a franchise-record 42 consecutive home games in Nashville.

Assistant Athletic Director in 1985. MacLachlan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1988 and remained in that role until joining the Oilers.

MacLachlan serves on the board for the Nashville Sports Council, Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, Boys and Girls Club of Middle Tennessee, and Second Harvest.

A 1978 graduate of the University of Michigan, Don and his wife Kathy are parents of two daughters: Shannon (13) and Kelly (9).

FLOYD REESE

EVP, General Manager and Director of Football Operations

Floyd Reese is entering his 27th NFL season and his ninth as the Titans' Executive VP/General Manager. He also serves as a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

Reese is the winningest general manager in franchise history with 66 wins, surpassing head coach/general manager Bum Phillips who amassed 55 wins from 1975-80.

In his eight seasons, he has assembled 2 talented, Super Bowl-caliber team and has overseen dramatic transformation from the club he inherited in 1994 to the one that has posted the AFC's best record over the last three seasons with 33 victories.

Players in Tennessee's 2002 training camp comprised 36 draft selections from the last nine drafts, including six firstrounders featuring Pro Bowlers Eddie George, Jevon Kearse and Steve McNair. He also claimed a diamond in the rough when he plucked TE Frank Wycheck off the waiver wire in 1995. Wycheck has since led the Titans in receptions for five of the last six seasons and earned three Pro Bowl invitations. In 2001, he constructed a trade that brought Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter to Tennessee from St. Louis.

Reese signed several free agents that played key roles for the Titans over the last three seasons, including QB Neil O'Donnell. LB Randall Godfrey, T Fred Miller and K Joe Nedney, Reese continued to fill holes through free agency by inking deals with S Lance Schulters from San Francisco, FB Greg Comella from the Giants and RB Robert Holcombe from St. Louis this past offseason.

Reese also has been effective at keeping the Titans' free agents, working out long-term deals with Steve McNair, Eddie George, Brad Hopkins, Derrick

One of the NFL's most respected general managers, Reese is the winningest GM in franchise history with 66 victories.

Mason, Samari Rolle and Benji Olson as their initial contracts were set to expire. Reese was a strong candidate for NFL Executive of the Year honors after the Titans' remarkable season in 1999. Of the 22 starters for the Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV, 13 were drafted by Reese. Overall, 17 Tennessee starters in the Super Bowl were originally drafted by the franchise. In 2000, nine of the 10 Titans invited to the Pro Bowl roster were drafted by the Titans/Oilers franchise.

Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Titans' football operations, including player personnel, scouting and contract negotiations. He joined the Oilers in 1986, serving as linebackers coach four seasons before shifting to the front office in 1990 as the club's Assistant General Manager. Four seasons later, Reese was promoted to General Manager. During his tenure, all firstround draft picks have been signed and in training camp by reporting day.

Reese aided in the selection of head coach Jeff Fisher and his staff, and coordinated all aspects of the team's National Football League draft and free agency.

A former All-America defensive lineman at UCLA (1966-69), Reese played one season with the Montreal Alouettes in the Canadian Football League before entering the coaching ranks. He began his coaching career at Liberty Union High in Brentwood, Calif., before returning to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach in 1971. Reese spent three seasons at UCLA before moving to Georgia Tech in 1974.

Reese broke into pro football coaching in 1975, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. Reese then joined the San Francisco 49ers for one season (1978), before joining Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served that role until 1984, when he was elevated to Defensive Coordinator. He tutored the linebackers for one season prior to joining the Oilers.

Floyd and his wife Sally have two sons: Jeremy (age 24) and Sean (age 21).

Reese tabbed University of Tennessee DT Albert Haynesworth in the 2002 NFL Draft.

STEVE UNDERWOOD

EVP and General Counsel

Steve Underwood is in his 12th season as the Oilers-Titans' Executive Vice President/General Counsel. The Baytown, Texas, native handles a myriad of legal functions, including involvement in the salary cap and player contracts, stadium contracts, promotional and corporate agreements, and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries, Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s private holding company, and is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

Underwood was heavily involved in issues related to the franchise's relocation to Tennessee, including involvement as one of the Titans' principal negotiators with local governments in Nashville, Memphis and Houston. Underwood also headed the club's lease negotiations with Vanderbilt University, the Liberty Bowl, and Tennessee State

ROBERT MCBURNETT

Vice President/Finance and CFO

Robert McBurnett enters his first season with the Titans as Vice President/Finance and CFO and 16th season in professional sports.

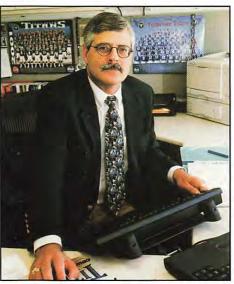

McBurnett's responsibilities include financial reporting, budgeting, internal controls and cash management for the franchise. He is responsible for the Collective Bargaining Agreement audit, which is used by the NFL to determine the salary cap for each season. In addition, McBurnett oversees the accounts payable and payroll functions of the organization and assists Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. with various special projects. He will work closely with the General Manager and General Counsel regarding salary cap issues and manages the player insurance program. He also is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

Prior to joining the Titans, McBurnett worked with Houston Astros from 1986-2000. He originally worked as the controller for the Houston Sports Association, which owned the Houston Astros and managed the Astrodome, among other entertainment businesses. In 1992, he was promoted to Chief Financial Officer for the Astros' parent company, managing the Finance and Accounting Departments for the Astros. McBurnett was promoted to Vice President Finance/Chief Financial Officer over the Astros'

Enron Field in 1997, as the Astros began the planning of what became Enron Field. He continued in that capacity for four years, handling the financial end of the Astros' design, construction and relocation to their new stadium.

Before joining the sports world, McBurnett held financial positions at several Houston-based companies. He began his accounting career with Deloitte Haskins & Sells, an international accounting firm.

A graduate of Texas A&M University, McBurnett and his wife, Christy, have two children, Jaclyn (18) and Robby (14), and live in Sugar Land, Texas.

McBurnett brings a wide array of sports and financial experience to the Titans, having worked for the Houston Astros and other financial firms.

BILL DICKERSON

Vice President and GM of Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park Facilities

Bill Dickerson is in his fourth season with the organization and second as Vice President/General Manager of the Coliseum/Baptist Sports Park Facilities.

Dickerson was promoted in 2001 after spending two seasons as General Manager of Facilities. He is responsible for the day-to-day operations of both the Baptist Sports Park practice facility and all events at the Coliseum, including game-day operations. He also is a member of the Titans Executive Committee.

Along with Titans games, the Coliseum also hosts games by Tennessee State University and the Music City Bowl. As general manager at the stadium, Dickerson has handled a diverse lineup of special events including: Billy Graham's three-day Nashville crusade, Country Music Association's Fan Fair, and concerts by George Strait and *NSync. In just three years, the facility has hosted over three million visitors for various events. In each of its first two years (2001-02) at the Coliseum, Fan Fair experienced the largest attendance figures in its history. Along with being one of the most fan-friendly stadiums in the country, the Coliseum's playing surface was ranked in the top five in the NFL in a survey of players after the 2000 season.

Dickerson joined the Titans after seven years with the Marriott Corporation in Kansas City. He worked as a Project Engineer in the College and University section of the company. His duties were to serve as a troubleshooting consultant for facility/campus concerns which included grounds, security, maintenance, etc.

Tennessee is Dickerson's second stop in the NFL, as he spent five seasons (1988-92) as the Director of Operations for the Kansas City Chiefs. While with the Chiefs, he managed Arrowhead Stadium and construction of the team's practice facility. The Chiefs hosted numerous special events at the stadium during Dickerson's tenure, including sold-out shows by the Rolling Stones and The Who.

A native of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, Dickerson earned his B.A. in business from Kansas State and M.S. in athletic administration from Wichita State University in 1980. Dickerson lives in Nashville.

Dickerson oversees a pair of state-of-the-art facilities: The Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park,

BOB HYDE

Vice President of Community Affairs

Bob Hyde is in his 14th season with the Titans and fifth as Vice President/Community Affairs. Hyde returned to the franchise in 1998 in his current position.

Under Hyde's direction, the Titans' community relations staff has made a major impact on the Mid-South with the success of the Titans' Caravans and over 300 player/ c o a c h / s t a f f appearances this past year.

He has successfully coordinated the club's major fundraiser in the Titans Charity Golf Classic. which has raised $362,000 during past four years for local charities through the Titans Foundation.

In 1998, Hyde served as the club's liaison between Mr. Adams and the advisory council. The information gathered by the advisory council and from focus groups that included hundreds of fans across the state, aided Adams in giving the franchise a new name, logo and uniform.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Hyde was a member of the team's media relations department from 1977-85. His career with the Oilers began as a University of Houston intern in 1977; and in the spring of 1978, he was named Assistant Public Relations Director.

Hyde was promoted to Media Relations Director in 1980 and served the Oilers in that capacity through the end of the 1985 season. He returned home to Tennessee in the spring of 1986, and for five years was an account executive with

> Nashville's Dve. Van Mol Lawrence Public Relations agency. In 1991, Hyde returned to Texas for football as Director of Public Relations for the San Antonio Riders of the NFL's World League American Football. When the NFL suspended operations of

Mike Heimerdinger • Offensive Coordinator

M i k e Heimerdinger enters his third season as offensive coordinator for the Titans. In his first two seasons at the offensive controls, the Titans have seen all of their offensive weapons post career-high numbers. As a team, the Titans have recorded over 5,300 yards of offense in consecutive seasons for the first time since the "run-n-shoot" years over a decade ago.

QB Steve McNair continues to mature as a quarterback under Heimerdinger, posting the two highest quarterback ratings of his career (90.2 in 2001 and 83.2 in 2000), establishing a career-high with 21 touchdowns and earning his first Pro Bowl invitation in 2000. Last year, McNair was the youngest quarterback of the five in the NFL to record a rating over 90 and throw for 20+ touchdowns (Favre, Warner, Gannon and Garcia). becoming the first AFC Central quarterback to accomplish the feat since Warren Moon in 1991. McNair also led the AFC in yards per attempt with 7.77 yards.

Over the last two seasons WR Derrick Mason established himself as a "go to" receiver, totaling 2,023 receiving yards and 14 touchdowns. RB Eddie George surpassed the 1,500-yard rushing plateau for the first time in his six-year NFL career in 2000, WR Kevin Dyson saw career highs in receiving yards (825) and touchdowns (7) during 2001 and TE Frank Wycheck matched a career-high with 70 receptions in 2000.

Heimerdinger joined the Titans after five seasons coaching the wide receivers for the two-time world champion Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage, the Denver tandem of Ed McCaffrey and Rod Smith became one of the top wide receiving duos in the NFL.

Heimerdinger came to Denver in 1995 from Duke University where he was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 1994. Before Duke, Heimerdinger spent five years (1989-93) as offensive coordinator at Rice University. During his tenure, the Owls produced the school's first back-to-back winning seasons since 1960-61. In 1988, Heimerdinger also served as offensive coordinator at Cal-State Fullerton, where his club set the school's single-game record for most points scored with 58.

Heimerdinger began his coaching career in 1975 in the high school ranks of Illinois and earned a head coaching job at Johnsburgh High School in McHenry, Ill. Two years later, he served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Florida in 1980. He spent 1981 at Air Force and at North Texas State in 1982 before returning to Florida in 1983. He spent five years at Florida before moving onto Cal-State Fullerton.

A native of Dekalb, Ill. (10/13/52), Heimerdinger played wide receiver (1970-71) and centerfield at Eastern Illinois, where he earned his degree in history in 1975. He also participated in the NCAA Division II College World Series in 1974. He later earned his master's in Administration from Northern Illinois. Mike and his wife Kathie are parents of daughter, Alicia (20) and son, Brian (16).

Jim Schwartz · Defensive Coordinator

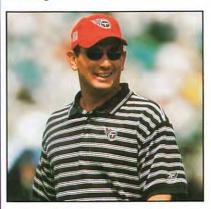

Jim Schwartz enters his fourth season with the Titans and second as defensive coordinator. As the youngest (35) defensive coordinator in the league, Schwartz maintained the Titans aggressive defense in his first year, finishing fifth in the NFL in rushing defense for a league-leading seventh consecutive year in the Top 10. The Titans also ranked ninth in the league in third-down defense (34.9).

Schwartz was elevated from linebacker coach to defensive coordinator in January of 2001. In addition to coaching the linebackers in 2000, he also coordinated the team's third-down package, which led the NFL in third-down efficiency, with opponents converting only 30.8% (68/221) of their third-down chances. Schwartz also was instrumental in the integration of newly acquired LB Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2). Schwartz originally joined the Titans' coaching staff in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control.

Prior to joining the Titans, Schwartz spent three years as an assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. While in Baltimore, Schwartz also coached the Ravens' outside line-backers. Prior to the Browns moving to Baltimore, he spent three years in the Cleveland Browns' personnel department, assisting in all phases of college scouting.

During that time, Schwartz also served as both a college and pro scout with the Browns and assisted the defensive coaching staff with film breakdowns and scouting reports. Schwartz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' line-backers from 1989-90. He then served as secondary assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91) and North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

A native of Baltimore, Md. (6/2/66), Schwartz was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Hoyas of Georgetown University, where he earned his degree in Economics. He also received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown and earned numerous honors in 1988, including CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, Division III All-America, NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar and team captain.

An avid chess player, Jim and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Nashville, Tenn., with twins Christian (1) and Alison (1).

Gunther Cunningham • Asst. Head Coach/LB's

G u n t h e r Cunningham, a 34-year coaching veteran, enters his second season with the Titans as the club's Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers Coach. Cunningham owns 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience, including two years as head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00. With a stellar defensive record, Cunningham is renowned as one of the finest defensive minds in the game. Cunningham's defenses have ranked in the top 11 in the league in total defense, five of his six seasons as a defensive coordinator in the NFL.

Under Cunningham's coaching, linebackers Randall Godfrey (111) and Eddie Robinson (101) led the Titans in tackles and the linebacking corps recorded six interceptions, the most since 1979 (7). Cunningham is also responsible for the continued development of Keith Bulluck into a play-making linebacker, posting 64 tackles, one sack and two interceptions as a part-time player last season.

As the eighth head coach in Chiefs history, Cunningham posted a 16-16 mark over two seasons. In 1999, he guided Kansas City to a 9-7 record as the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio. The 55-year old originally joined the Chiefs in 1995 as defensive coordinator, a position he held for four seasons before being elevated to head coach. During his span as defensive coordinator (1995-98), the Chiefs defense tied for the league lead in fewest points allowed (1,050). Kansas City posted a 23-9 record in AFC West play en route to a pair of division titles ('95, '97) over that four-year span. His 1995 defense led the NFL in scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and ranked second in total defense (284.3 ypg).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Cunningham worked four seasons with the Raiders, where he held a variety of positions, including defensive coordinator (1992-93), defensive line coach (1994) and line-backers coach (1991).

From 1985-90, Cunningham was the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers. He originally joined the Chargers in the personnel department before being appointed defensive line coach after three months. During three of his six seasons in San Diego, the Chargers led the NFL in sacks, including a franchise-record 62 sacks in 1986.

Cunningham entered the NFL as a defensive line coach for the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84) after spending one season as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the CFL. A linebacker at Allan Hancock College (CA) and the University of Oregon, Cunningham also spent 15 years coaching in the college ranks: Oregon (1969-70), Arkansas (1971), Stanford (1972-76) and Cal-Berkeley (1977-80).

A native of Munich, Germany, Cunningham (6/19/46) moved to the United States at the age of 11. Cunningham and his wife of 33 years, Rene', have two children, Natalie (25) and Adam (19). The couple lives in Brentwood, Tenn.

George Henshaw • Asst. Head Coach/Offense

George Henshaw is in his sixth season with the Titans and his third as assistant head coach/offense. He was elevated to his current position in May 2000, after spending the 1999 season as the Titans' assistant head coach/running game.

Henshaw works in conjunction with offensive coordinator Mike Heimerdinger in game-planning the team's offensive attack as well as coaching the tight ends. TE Frank Wycheck has led the team in receptions in five of the last six seasons and earned three Pro Bowl invitations. This season Wycheck can become just the fourth TE in league history to record 500 career receptions (currently at 448 receptions), joining Hall of Famers Ozzie Newsome, Kellen Winslow and current Denver Bronco Shannon Sharpe. The Titans' tight ends have caught 412 passes during the last four seasons, the most in the league during that span.

Henshaw joined the Oilers in 1997 after serving as the offensive coordinator of the New York Giants for four seasons (1993-96). During his tenure with the Giants, the team boasted one of the NFL's best running games, including a league-high average of 138.1 yards per game in 1993. Before joining the Giants, Henshaw spent five years (1988-92) with the Denver Broncos, including a stint as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 1992. Prior to that position, coached Denver's Henshaw wide receivers in 1991, and the Broncos offensive line from 1988-90. During that period, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV. Prior to joining the Broncos, Henshaw was the head coach at the University of Tulsa for one season. After leading the Golden Hurricanes for the 1987 season, he joined the Broncos.

Henshaw began his coaching career at his alma mater of West Virginia from 1970-75 before moving on to Florida

State University. He spent seven years (1976-82) as both an offensive and defensive line coach for the Seminoles, including four years (1979-82) as offensive coordinator. In his first two seasons as offensive coordinator, Florida State had a regular season record of 21-1, and helped head coach Bobby Bowden implement one of the best offensive systems in the country. From 1983-86, Henshaw served as the offensive coordinator as well as the offensive line coach for the University of Alabama, which led the SEC in total offense (424.1 yards per game).

A native of Midlothian, Va. (1/22/48), Henshaw is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Michael (21), Matthew (19) and Kerry (16). Michael is a redshirt sophomore safety at West Virginia University and Matthew will be a redshirt freshman quarterback at Florida State.

Chuck Cecil • Defensive Assistant/Quality Control

Chuck Cecil enters his second season as a defensive assistant/ quality control coach and third as a member of the franchise. Cecil closed out his seven-year NFL playing career with the then-Houston Oilers in 1995.

In his role as a defensive assistant coach, Cecil is responsible for "breaking down" film of upcoming opponents and assists in coaching the safeties.

Cecil was known for his thunderous tackling and aggressive style during his playing days as a safety for the Green Packers (1988-92),Phoenix Bay Cardinals (1993) and Houston Oilers (1995). Cecil earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and garnered All-Madden status in 1992 after four interceptions and 102 stops. In 95 career games, he totaled 400 tackles and 16 interceptions. He was originally drafted by the Packers in the fourth round (89th overall) of the 1989 NFL draft.

Initially a walk-on for the University of Arizona football team, Cecil would earn consensus All-America and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors after a nine-interception senior season. Cecil owns the career interception record in the Pac-10 with 21. He was inducted into the Wildcats Sports Hall of Fame in 1993. He also spent two seasons (1999-2000) as a television analyst for the University of Arizona football games.

A California native, Cecil (11/8/64) is an avid golfer who has played a number of events on the Celebrity Golf Tour. Cecil is single and resides in Nashville.

Ned James • Offensive Assistant/Quality Control

Ned James enters his first season with the Titans as an offensive assistant/quality control and sixth season in the NFL.

For the offense, James is responsible for "breaking down" the film of upcoming opponents and self-scouting. On the field, he will work primarily with the wide receivers.

James worked in a similar capacity as a defensive assistant for the New Orleans Saints in 1998-99 and Seattle Seahawks, first as an offensive assistant from 1995-96 and on defense in 1997. He initially broke into the pro ranks as the running back coach for the London Monarchs in the World League of American Football in 1992.

As a player, James spent time with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League (1987) and the Arena League's Dallas Texans (1990).

He began his coaching career at Arizona State in 1987 as running backs coach for the Sun Devils. James then moved to Long Beach State in 1988 to coach running backs, before joining the staff at Texas Christian (1989-90) as a linebacker coach. From 1992-94, he was the offensive coordinator at Winona State University in Minnesota.

James played quarterback at the University of New Mexico, where he set a school record with 514 total yards versus Wyoming in 1986, passing for 406 yards and rushing for 108, and became the only player in NCAA Div.-I history to pass for 400 yards and rush for over 100 yards in a single game.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y. (1/18/64), James and his wife Traynace have a daughter, Brianna (2), and live in Franklin, Tenn.

Craig Johnson • Quarterbacks

Craig Johnson enters his third season with the Titans and first as quarterbacks coach. He originally came to Tennessee as an offensive assistant/quality control and was promoted to quarterback coach this past offseason.

As an assistant, he primarily dealt with the quarterbacks in practice and in his two seasons with the Titans, quarterback Steve McNair has developed into one of the finest quarterbacks in the league. McNair's quarterback rating jumped from 78.6 in 1999 to 90.3 last season, and his touchdown production went from 12 to 21 in two seasons.

Johnson joined the Titans staff after spending three seasons as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland. During his tenure, he also served as the Terps' offensive coordinator for two years (1997-98). In his last year at Maryland, the Terps led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense (235 yards per game avg.), and Johnson's quarterback, Calvin McCall, was one of the top-rated freshman in the country.

He served as the quarterback coach for five seasons at Northwestern University (1992-96). At NU, he was part of the first back-to-back Big 10 Conference champions (1995-96) in the school's history. Johnson's quarterback Steve Schnur earned First-Team All Big 10 honors as a senior and posted a careerhigh 336 passing yards in the 1996 Rose Bowl against USC. In three of his five years at NU a Wildcats quarterback earned All Big Ten honors.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern, Johnson served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons (1989-91) at Virginia Military Institute. Under Johnson, VMI's offense ranked fifth in the nation in total offense in 1990 and first in rushing offense in 1991. He broke into college coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming, in 1983 before moving on to the University of Arkansas in 1984 in the same capacity. In 1985, he was a part-time assistant coach at Army, tutoring the fullbacks. Johnson then served as running backs coach for three seasons (1986-88) at Rutgers.

A native of Rome, N.Y. (3/3/60), Johnson grew up in Aurora, Colo. and earned three letters as a quarterback for the Cowboys, throwing for more than 1,100 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior in 1982. Johnson and his wife, Darlene, are parents of two daughters, Shelby (12) and Sydney (10).

Alan Lowry • Special Teams

Alan Lowry enters his sixth season as an assistant coach with the Titans and fourth as special teams coach. During the last three seasons, the Titans have produced seven special teams touchdowns, including five kick returns for touchdowns, and over the last two seasons, have not allowed a kick return for touchdown.

Last season, the Titans produced their first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1988, when Derrick Mason returned the opening kickoff 101 yards at Cincinnati. In 2000, the Titans were one of only two NFL teams (Seattle) to rank in the top ten in the league in punt return average, kickoff return average, punt return defense and kickoff return defense. Tennessee has ranked in the top ten in punt return defense in each of the last three seasons.

In the 1999 season, the Titans were propelled to the Super Bowl with a number of plays on special teams including the "Music City Miracle" and Derrick Mason's 80-yard kick return in the AFC Championship Game. Lowry took over the Titans' special teams after coaching the club's wide receivers corps from 1997-98.

Lowry has 13 seasons coaching special teams from his positions with Dallas (1982-87), Tampa Bay (1991), and San Francisco (1992-95). He joined the Oilers in 1996 as defensive assistant/quality control and was promoted to the position of wide receivers coach one year later.

Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90). He originally joined the Cowboys in 1982 as their special teams coach before shifting to receivers (1988-90). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-95. In San Francisco, Lowry and the Niners made two NFC Championship game appearances (1992,1994) and captured a Super Bowl Championship (XXIX).

A former quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas, Lowry earned All-Southwest Conference honors before jumping into the coaching ranks. Lowry began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1974 before moving to the University of Wyoming in 1975. He spent 1976 with the Dallas Cowboys in their scouting department before returning to the University of Texas (1977-81) for five seasons as defensive backs coach.

A native of Miami, Okla., Lowry resides in Franklin, Tenn. with his wife, Donna. The couple has two daughters, Marta (19) and Lindsay (14).

Mike Munchak • Offensive Line

Hall of Fame guard Mike Munchak enters his sixth season as the Titans offensive line coach.

Under Munchak's direction, the Titans are one of only five teams to place in the top 11 in total rushing yards (5,689) and fewest sacks allowed (95) over the last three seasons (Denver, Oakland, Dallas and San Francisco). In 2000, the offensive line paved the way for RB Eddie George to finish second in the AFC with a career-high 1,509 rushing yards and produced two Pro Bowlers, Bruce Matthews and Brad Hopkins.

One of the greatest Oilers of all-time, Munchak joined the club's front office in 1994, assisting the offensive coaching staff and providing quality control. He was later promoted to offensive line coach in 1997.

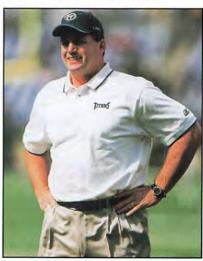

A former first-round draft choice of the Oilers (eighth overall) in 1982, Munchak played in 159 regular season games (fourth all-time on club's list) and 10 playoff games before retiring on July 21, 1994.

Munchak became the fifth player in franchise history to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (July, 2001) and first to enter the Hall after playing his entire career with the franchise. He was introduced by long-time teammate and friend Bruce Matthews, who became the first active NFL player to make a Hall of Fame induction.

When he retired from playing, Munchak owned the club mark with nine Pro Bowl invitations. He also had his uniform (#63) retired on November 6, 1996, marking only the fourth jersey in Oilers history to be retired (Earl Campbell's #34, Jim Norton's #43 and Elvin Bethea's #65 are the others). He also was named to the inaugural class of the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame and elected to the Pennsylvania and Texas Sports Hall of Fames.

A native of Scranton, Pa. (3/5/60) and graduate of Penn State, Munchak and his wife, Marci, have two daughters, Alexandria (16) and Julie (14).

Sherman Smith • Running Backs

Former Seattle Seahawks running back Sherman Smith is in his eighth year as the Titans' running backs coach. Smith joined the Oilers in 1995, after spending three seasons at the University of Illinois. At Illinois, Smith served as tight ends coach from 1992-93 and added running backs coach to his title in 1994.

Smith has helped All-Pro RB Eddie George evolve into one of the premier running backs in the NFL. George leads the NFL in rushing (7,812 yards) over the last six seasons, and Smith also has aided George into becoming a more complete back, averaging 43 receptions in each of the last four seasons. His rushing total of 7,812 in his first six seasons in the league ranks fifth on the NFL's all-time list behind Eric Dickerson, Barry Sanders, Walter Payton and Earl Campbell.

A former standout during his collegiate career at Miami (Ohio) University, Smith coached the running backs at his alma mater for two seasons (1990-91) before moving to Illinois. After joining the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice in 1976, Smith went on to play nine years in the NFL.

Smith led a fledgling Seahawk team in rushing in each of his first four seasons, finishing his Seattle tenure with 3,429 yards and 28 touchdowns on 810 attempts, as well as 210 receptions for 2,445 yards with 10 touchdowns. Smith left Seattle among the all-time rushers in Seahawks' history before closing his NFL playing career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84.

As a quarterback at Miami (Ohio), Smith led the Redskins to the Mid-American Conference crown in his final three seasons while compiling a 33-1-1 record.

In 1985, Smith began teaching in the Northwest where he coached (basketball and track) and taught at Redmond Junior High and coached football at Redmond High School before returning to the college level as a coach in 1990.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio (11/1/54), he and his wife, Sharon, have a daughter, Shavonne (22), who is in graduate school at the University of Tennessee, and a son, Sherman (20), a junior defensive back at Miami (Ohio).

Steve Walters • Wide Receivers

Steve Walters, a 31-year veteran of coaching, including 19 in the NFL, enters his fourth season with the Titans as wide receivers coach. Walters joined the Titans coaching staff in 1999 after spending two seasons as wide receivers coach with the New England Patriots.

Last year, the Titans saw the emergence of Derrick Mason and Kevin Dyson as a receiving tandem as they totaled 1.953 yards and 16 touchdowns. The 16 touchdowns ranked third in the league among receiving tandems. behind Francisco (23, Owens and Stokes) and Oakland (18, Rice and Brown). Additionally, Titans wide receivers tallied six 100-yard games, including Mason and Dyson each posting 100vard performances in the same game in consecutive weeks - a feat that had not been accomplished by a set of franchise wide outs since 1961. Mason's 1,128 yards were the ninth most in franchise history and he became the first 1,100receiver since Haywood Jeffires in 1991.

Walters also developed three rookie wide receivers who showed great promise. Drew Bennett, Justin McCareins and Eddie Berlin all displayed flashes of brilliance in their rookie campaigns and will continue to mature this season.

Walters spent two coaching stints with New England. He began his NFL coaching career with New England in 1992, serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before serving as wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons (1986-96). During his tenure in New Orleans, his wide receivers set the record for most singleseason receptions in franchise history.

Walters began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1971. After two seasons, he accepted his full-time position coaching receivers at Tampa University in 1973. He coached the defensive backs for two seasons (1974-75)Northeast at Louisiana before moving on to Morehead State as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. From 1977-78, Walters served as wide receivers coach at the University of Tulsa, In 1979, he coached quarterbacks at Memphis State before spending two seasons (1980-81) as secondary coach at Southern Methodist University under head coach Ron Meyer. Walters then moved to the NFL with New England after Meyer accepted the Patriots' head coaching position.

A native of Jonesboro, Ark. (6/16/48), Walters played defensive back at the University of Arkansas. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Springdale High in Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree at Arkansas and added his master's degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976. Steve and his wife Susan are the parents of two children, Kirk (22) and Kasey (19).

Jim Washburn • Defensive Line

Jim Washburn enters his fourth season as the Titans defensive line coach. In two of his first three seasons, the Titans defense established franchise record sack totals with 54 in 1999 and 55 in 2000.

The line is paced by three-time Pro Bowler Jevon Kearse, who has an AFC-best 36 sacks over the last three seasons. Kearse's total over his first three years in the league ranks third in NFL history, behind Reggie White and Derrick Thomas. Over the last three years, the fiery Washburn has helped produce 97.0 sacks from the defensive line, compared to only 60.0 sacks in three seasons prior to his arrival. Washburn joined the Titans as the defensive line coach after spending 1998 as the defensive line coach at the University of Houston.

Washburn joined the Cougars after four seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of Arkansas from 1994-97. A 26-year coaching veteran, Washburn went to Arkansas after coaching the Charlotte Rage of Arena Football in 1993. He also served as defensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1992, after a year as their defensive line coach in 1991. Washburn held dual roles as head coach and defensive coordinator of the Charlotte Barons, leading the team to a national championship.

Before entering the professional coaching ranks, Washburn was the defensive line coach at Purdue in 1989, at South Carolina from 1983-88 and at New Mexico from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as the strength and defensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1976. He then spent two seasons (1977-78) as defensive coordinator at Lees McRae Junior College (worked under Titans scout Cole Proctor, who was the head coach) before moving to Livingston University as defensive coordinator in 1979.

A native of Shelby, N.C. (12/2/50), Washburn was a four-year letterman at Gardner Webb College, where he earned his bachelor's in physical education in 1973. He added his master's degree from Appalachian State.

North Carolina A&T in 1975. Washburn and his wife, Sandy, have three children, Jessica (18), Jeremiah (24), who was an offensive lineman at Arkansas, and Brady (22), who plays offensive line at Appalachian State.

Everett Withers • Defensive Backs

Everett Withers enters his second season with the Titans as defensive backs coach and his third NFL season.

Withers joined the Titans staff in 2001, after spending three seasons (1998-2000) coaching the defensive backs at the University of Texas. A veteran of 13 college seasons, Withers guided a Longhorns' secondary which ranked 75th in the nation in pass defense in 1997 (132.7 efficiency rating) to first in the nation in 2000 (88.02). Withers is credited with helping a young corps of defensive backs improve in a number of statistical categories after becoming familiar with the pro-style "bump-and-run" coverage philosophy.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. His 1996 defensive unit ranked fourth nationally in both total defense (235.8) and rushing defense (81.1) and led the NCAA in forced turnovers (41). While at Louisville, Withers helped Dolphins All-Pro corner Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals. Withers also gained experience with coaching stints at Southern Mississippi (Defensive Backs, 1992-93), Tulane (Outside Linebackers, 1991) and Austin Peay (Defensive Backs and Wide Receivers, 1988-90). He also spent one season as a defensive quality control coach for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

A native of Charlotte, N.C. (6/15/63),

Withers was a standout defensive back and captain at Appalachian State. Withers and his wife, Kara, have two children, Tia (6) and Pierce (3), and reside in Brentwood, Tenn.

Steve Watterson • Strength & Conditioning

One of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL, Steve Watterson is in his 17th season as the Titans' strength and conditioning coach. In 1999, Steve was appointed to the National Research Council for Health (NRCH) scientific advisory council. The NRCH maintains a highly qualified scientific advisory council comprised of health professionals across the country. NRCH was formed in 1977 to expand the scientific foundation and understanding of natural health science.

In 1992, Watterson received the greatest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Titans and directs the club's successful off-season conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before joining the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (AZ) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt credits Watterson with his ability to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500.

Watterson has advised NASCAR teams on training for proper biomechanics for their pit crews. As a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for AdvoCare Nutrition, Steve also has advised NASCAR teams such as Richard Petty's on proper supplementation for improved performance. Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, R.I. (11/27/56), Watterson has two daughters, Kelsea (13) and Bergen (4), and two sons, Brock (7) and Cole (6). Steve and his wife Heidi live in Brentwood, Tenn.

ing 30 years with the Arizona Cardinals organization. Bolinger is responsible for scouting the Western Region of the United States for the Titans. While with the Cardinals, Bolinger held a number of positions, including Director of College Scouting (1994-97) and Senior Scout (1998-2000). Before joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (CFL). A 1956 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, Bolinger played nine games of the 1956 season for the CFL Edmonton Eskimos before returning to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant. After spending the 1957 season as head coach at Miami (Okla.) High School, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years. In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL. As a collegian at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned consensus all-America recognition in 1955 when he captained the Sooners' national championship team that led the nation in rushing and total offense. Bolinger finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1955 and was named All-Big Eight Conference twice. The 69year-old Bolinger, a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tempe, Arizona. They have three daughters - Sharon, Susan, and Sandra and four grandchildren.

Blake Beddingfield • College Scout

B l a k e Beddingfield is entering his fourth season with the Titans after joining the organization in 1999.

He is responsible for scouting portions of the Southeastern United States, in addition to preparing the draft room, building and maintaining the club's college and pro scouting database, and assisting in the evaluation of NFL players.

Beddingfield originally joined the Titans as a scouting assistant. He came to the club after spending one season (1998) in scouting with the Arena Football League's Albany Firebirds. He also served as a strength and speed coach at the Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Ala., for two years after his graduation from the University of Alabama, where he received a bachelor's of science degree in criminal justice.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Beddingfield and his wife, Julie, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

Ray Biggs • College Scout

Ray Biggs is in his ninth season with the Titans. Biggs joined the team in 1994 after spending five years as a Northwest area scout for the National Football Scouting, Inc.

Prior to his scouting work, Biggs embarked on a successful coaching career, starting as an assistant at Walla Walla Community College (1969-71).

In 1972, he began work on his master's degree at Colorado State and was a graduate assistant with the football program. From 1976-82, he was the assistant head coach and coordinated recruiting at Mesa State College before moving to Yakima Valley College (1983-89) in a similar role.

Biggs played two years at defensive tackle at Montana State where he earned a B.S. in business management. He received his master's degree in college student personnel administration from Colorado State in 1975.

A native of Walla Walla, Wash., Ray and his wife, Lynn, have a son, Chris.

Johnny Meads • College Scout

Johnny Meads joined the Titans as a scout prior to the 2000 season, after spending nine seasons with the organization as a linebacker for the then-Houston Oilers from 1984-92. Meads handles the Northeast region for the Titans.

The Oilers originally drafted Meads in the 3rd round (58th overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft from Nicholls State where he held the school record for tackles and earned I-AA All-America honors. Meads totaled 528 tackles in 117 games, including 97 starts during his career with the Oilers. He started at outside linebacker on Oilers teams that reached the postseason in each of his last five seasons and won the AFC Central title in 1991. After being waived by the Oilers in 1992, Meads finished his final NFL season with the Washington Redskins.

Meads earned his first scouting job in 1997, joining the Green Bay Packers as a college scout for the Southwest, working two seasons.

Born June 25, 1961, Meads has two daughters, Brittney (11) and Andrea (8), and one son, Jeremy (14). He resides in Navarre, Florida.

Cole Proctor • College Scout

Cole Proctor is in his fourth season with the Titans after spending five years (1994-98) as a scout with the Arizona Cardinals. He entered the NFL after recording 24 years of coaching experience. He began his coaching career at Morehead State during the 1967-68 season as a graduate assistant. He then served as an assistant coach at Gardner-Webb for three seasons (1969-71) prior to one campaign (1968) as an assistant at Lees-McRae.

He went on to spend three years as head football coach at Keene High School and Chatham Township High, earning New Jersey Coach-of-the-Year honors by the Newark Star Ledger. He returned to Lees-McRae College to serve as head football coach and athletic director for three years (1976-78). He then was an assistant at East Tennessee State (1979-80), San Diego State (1981-85), Iowa State (1985), and Utah (1986-89). He returned to Morehead State in 1989 as head coach, earning Ohio Valley Conference Coach-of-the-Year honors in 1990. He earned his degree in health, physical education and recreation from Morehead State in 1967 and his master's degree in 1968.

A native of Meriden, Conn., Cole and his wife, Marti, are parents of Susan and Tom, and have three grandchildren – Josh, Matthew and Abbie.

Ellis Rainsberger • College Scout

Ellis Rainsberger joined the Titans during the 2000 season as a college scout for the Southeast. He comes to Tennessee after spending 10 seasons with the Cleveland Browns/Baltimore Ravens organization.

While with Cleveland/Baltimore, Rainsberger filled a number of roles, including: college scout, pro personnel/advance scout and assistant defensive line coach.

Rainsberger is no stranger to professional football having served as an offensive coordinator in the CFL for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1978-83) and Toronto Argonauts (1986-89) and in the USFL for the Denver Gold (1983-84) and Pittsburgh Maulers (1984-85). He also spent one season (1985) as a member of the CFL scouting combine.

Rainsberger also has 20 years of college coaching experience, including stops at Drake (1959-62), Washburn (1962-65), Kansas (1965-66), Illinois (1967-72), Wisconsin (1972-74), and Kansas State (1974-78). His stints at Washburn and Kansas State, his alma mater, were as head coach.

He was a three-year letterman for the Wildcats and was named All-Big Eight twice (1956-57) and Academic All-American once (1957). He also lettered twice in wrestling, winning the Missouri Valley title.

Now residing in Mt. Airy, Maryland, Rainsberger and his wife, Shirley, have six grown children: Becky, Bud, Cathy, Sandy, Chris and Mike.

Al Smith • Dir. of Player Development/Pro Personnel

Former All-Pro linebacker Al Smith enters his fifth season as the Titans' Director of Player Development/Pro Personnel.

Smith assists the players with career transition into and out of the NFL through continuing education, financial education and dealing with family matters through player programs. Regarded as one of the top coordinators in the league, his department was named the AFC's best for 2001 after being recognized as the NFL's most improved player development program for 1998-99 after his arrival. Last season, Smith was appointed to the league's Executive Steering Committee, which deals with player issues throughout the NFL.

Smith's other duties include scouting NFL Europe League and the Canadian Football League and selective college talent, along with the advance scouting of NFL opponents within the personnel department.

A 10-year NFL veteran, Smith was the starting middle linebacker for the Houston Oilers his entire career, anchoring a defense that was considered by many to be the best ever assembled, making seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. He ended his playing career in 1997 after playing in 10 playoff games. He was elected team captain multiple years and earned Pro Bowl invitations following the 1991 and 1992 seasons.

Smith was selected by the Oilers from Utah State in the sixth round (147th overall) of the 1987 NFL draft. He also is a member of the state of Utah's All-Century team and has been inducted into the Utah State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Miraculous Comeback Earns Dyson Courage Award

The Tennessee Titans named WR Kevin Dyson the 2001 team representative of the Ed Block Courage Award, an honor given annually to the player on each NFL team who best symbolizes professionalism, great strength, dedication and community service.

Dyson, a four-year veteran from Utah, severely injured his left knee in practice on September 20, 2000, two games into the regular season. After suffering full or partial tears of his anterior cruciate ligament, medial collateral ligament, posterior cruciate ligament, lateral meniscus and medial meniscus, he spent the remainder of the season recuperating on injured reserve.

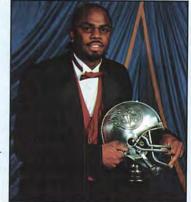

Through arduous and often painful rehabilitation work, he recovered quickly

"The staff here has not seen anything quite like this before," said Titans Head Trainer Brad Brown, who helped oversee Dyson's comeback. "There's no one else we've had to compare this to, nobody that's come back from such a serious knee injury to perform at that high of a level."

Dyson enjoyed his finest season in the NFL in 2001, setting career-highs in both receiving yards (825) and touchdowns (7), while tying his 1999 mark for receptions with 54.

"It means a lot," Dyson said of the award. "Especially considering what I went through the season before. I'm just happy to be able to play again and do the things I'm doing."

Player Development Staff Named Best in AFC

Director of Player Development/Pro Personnel Al Smith, along with assistant Tina Tuggle, were awarded the NFL's trophy for Most Outstanding Player Development Program in the AFC for 2001.

The league first established the player development program in 1991. Since then, approximately 6,800 players and significant others have made use of programs administered by the department, ranging from degree completion, financial seminars, and internships to life skills seminars and player assistance.

Titans Scout Brocato Honored in Louisiana

Tennessee Titans veteran scout C.O Brocato was inducted into The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame of the S.M. McNaughton Chapter of North Louisiana this past offseason.

Brocato, 72, was recognized for outstanding contribution to amateur athletic football in North Louisiana. Brocato was the head football coach at Jesuit High School in North Louisiana from 1958-67. He capped his tenure by earning Coach of the Year honors in 1967 when he led his school to a perfect 13-0 record in AA play.

"You don't get inducted into too many Hall of Fames," said Brocato. "When I found out I was really surprised. I am very appreciative of all the people that have helped me get to this point."

The National Football and College Hall of Fame currently has more than 10,000 members and 109 chapters throughout the United States. Recent Louisiana chapter honorees have included Jimmy Childress, Doug Williams, Stan Humphries, Pat Tilley, Joe Ferguson, and former Oilers star Charlie Hennigan, a member of Houston's AFL Championship teams from 1960-61 and holder of numerous club records.

Brocato, who originally joined the Titans' organization in 1974, has been recognized as one of the NFL's top 10 scouts in a newspaper poll of league general managers. He was promoted to National Coordinator of College Scouting in 2001 and is primarily responsible for researching all college talent in the Central United States.

NFL Realignment in 2002

The Tennessee Titans begin play in the new AFC South Division in 2002, this after the NFL expanded to 32 teams with the addition of the Houston Texans. The league is realigning for the first time since 1970 – into eight divisions of four teams each – and a new scheduling formula guarantees for the first time that all teams play each other on a regular, rotating basis. Although the number of teams will increase to 32, the number of playoff teams will remain the same at 12. The Titans are in the AFC South with the Houston Texans, Jacksonville Jaguars, and Indianapolis Colts. "The new scheduling formula is one of the most positive aspects of realignment," said NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The new formula guarantees that NFL fans will see every team play each other on a regular, rotating basis. The formula will eliminate the many aberrations of the past in which teams either did not play for long periods of time or did not play in another team's stadium for many years."

Steve has defined how a quarter-back can suffer through adversity and overcome it. He's a great role model and a guy I've talked to plenty of times about his improvement in the league and the things he worked on and how he asserted himself as one of the top quarterbacks in this league.

McNair Named Nashville's 2001 Sports Person of the Year

Titans quarterback Steve McNair was named the 2001 Sports Person of the Year by the Nashville Sports Council during its annual O'Charley's Dinner of Champions this past off-season.

The award was presented to an individual who made an outstanding contribution in 2001 to the Middle Tennessee area in the world of sports. McNair was a finalist along with Chantelle Anderson (All-American center on the Vanderbilt women's basketball team), Dewon Brazelton (MTSU All-American pitcher), Mike Dunham (goalie for Nashville Predators and USA's 2002 Olympic team), and Sterling Marlin (NASCAR Winston Cup driver).

"This is a great honor, one that's very special to me after going through all the injuries I've been through," said McNair, who overcame a shoulder infection and other injuries to post the best statistical season of his career in 2001. "You never realize how many injuries you have or how much pain you're going through during the season. This is a physical game and you have to realize that you're not always going to be healthy. But all I try to do is win games and make my teammates and our fans happy."

With Eddie George slowed while returning from a severe toe injury, McNair was asked to throw the ball down field more in 2001. He responded by producing career-highs in passing yards (3,350 – 5th in the AFC) and touchdowns (21 – 4th in AFC), while posting an 90.2 passer rating (2nd in AFC). McNair was equally effective on the ground, rushing for 416 yards and five touchdowns, and earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice during the season.

"For Steve to have a 90 rating and put up the kind of numbers that he did with his average per attempt shows that he's there now," Titans head coach Jeff Fisher said. "I said that Steve was one of the top three or four quarterbacks in the league at the beginning of last season, and he certainly proved that to be the case in 2001."

Added running back Eddie George: "I cannot think of any other quarterback that had the kind of season that Steve had."

Fisher Reaches Goal, Finishes Country Music Marathon

Head coach Jeff Fisher's motto he instilled in players this past off-season was to "finish everything you start."

This past April, Fisher practiced what he was preaching, running in his first ever marathon. Trading in his playbook for a pair of running shoes, Fisher crossed the County Music Marathon's finish line in a time of 4:09:13.

"There were a lot of great runners and it was a really fun event, so I'm going to recover and maybe do it again next year," said Fisher.

Fisher had decided to run the marathon in December after researching marathon running online.

"Our whole big deal this past off-season was to finish," Fisher told reporters after completing the race. "We need to finish plays, finish series, finish this and that. Well I finished. Maybe they've got a chance to finish this season."

The message got through, loud and clear.

No Joke

In the early stages of the 2002
NFL Draft, Haynesworth received a phone call from friend and former Volunteers teammate Donte Stallworth pretending to be a representative from another NFL club, saying the team would use its pick on Haynesworth.
Haynesworth soon evened the score, pulling the same prank on Stallworth several minutes later.

Game #I • Sept. 9, 2001 • Nashville, TN

olphins QB Jay Fiedler completed 12-of-20 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns to help the Dolphins win their 10th consecutive season opener with a 31-23 victory over the Titans in Nashville. Miami led 3-0 when Fielder helped widen Miami's lead, directing a nine-play, 88-yard drive that resulted in a four-yard touchdown run by Lamar Smith to make the score 10-0. Titans S Bobby Myers recovered a fumble and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown to pull Tennessee within 10-7 in the second quarter. But Fiedler extended the Dolphins' lead when he found WR Oronde Gadsden open for a 23-yard touchdown pass with 9:26 remaining in the half. Miami made it 24-7 in the third quarter when Smith took a Fiedler screen pass and raced 69 yards for a touchdown. The Titans finally got on track when QB Steve McNair cut Miami's lead to 24-14 with a 29-yard touchdown strike to WR Derrick Mason, but McNair was knocked out of the game on the play with a bruised right shoulder and replaced by backup Neil O'Donnell. Miami's defense answered the Titans' challenge when LB Zach Thomas picked off an O'Donnell pass and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Trailing 31-14, O'Donnell bounced back with an 18-yard TD pass to TE Erron Kinney and later led an offensive drive that set up a 51-yard field goal by Joe Nedney to cut Miami's lead to 31-23 late in the game. Tennessee had one last chance to tie the score in the closing seconds, but time ran out as O'Donnell's "Hail Mary" pass fell incomplete on the final play of the game.

Game #2 • Sept. 23, 2001 • Jacksonville, FL

Tilling in for injured RB Fred Taylor, Jaguars RB Stacey Mack rushed for 80 yards, including a career-long 22-yard touchdown run, to lead Jacksonville past Tennessee, 13-6, at Alltell Stadium. The Titans were held out of the end zone, missing out on a pair of key scoring opportunities inside Jacksonville's 20yard line late in the game. Tennessee failed on a 4th-and-1 at Jacksonville's 15yard line when Jaguars DT Gary Walker stuffed RB Eddie George with 5:32 remaining. On Tennessee's next possession, WR Kevin Dyson nearly hauled in a touchdown pass from QB Neil O'Donnell on 4th-and-9 with two minutes to go, but was unable to maintain possession. Tennessee's lone scoring came off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who converted field goals of 22 and 43 yards. O'Donnell, starting in place of injured starter Steve McNair, completed 21-of-36 passes for 215 yards. George was solid with 79 yards on 20 carries, but Tennessee only mustered 264 offensive yards on the day. The game's lone touchdown came from Mack, who entered the game with 8:33 to play in the second quarter after Taylor left the game with a hamstring injury. Tennessee led at that point 6-3 and had just recovered a fumble by Taylor - the result of his injury - on the play. But Mack would eventually bust loose on his 22-yard TD run, breaking tackle attempts by LB Eddie Robinson and S Joe Walker in the open field, and S Blaine Bishop at the goal line.

Game #3 • Oct. 7, 2001 • Baltimore, MD

The Ravens tallied 460 yards on I offense while holding Tennessee to just 185 total yards in a decisive 26-7 victory over the Titans in Baltimore. The Ravens took a 20-0 lead before a blocked punt by CB Donald Mitchell, who picked up the loose ball and returned it 26 yards into the end zone in the third quarter, gave Tennessee's its only points of the day. Following RB Terry Allen's nine-yard TD run that gave Baltimore a 7-0 lead, WR Qadry Ismail blew past CB DeRon Jenkins for a 77-yard touchdown reception early in the second quarter to put Baltimore in front 14-0. Allen, filling in for injured RB Jamal Lewis, rushed for 108 yards on the day, while backup James Brookins added 68 yards and one touchdown on 15 carries in relief. Baltimore converted 23 first downs to Tennessee's nine, and its staunch defense prevented many scoring threats by Tennessee's offense all afternoon. With a chance to pull within six points, the Titans turned to a halfback option play, but RB Mike Green's pass was intercepted by S Rod Woodson with 12:01 to play. One bright spot for Tennessee was the play of TE Erron Kinney, who posted a career-high seven receptions for 75 yards, leading the Titans offensively. Craig Hentrich, meanwhile, tied his career high for most punts in a game with 10 for 402 yards (40.2yard avg.), including a long of 55 yards. CB Samari Rolle, TE Frank Wycheck, and RB Eddie George were knocked out of the game with injuries.

Game #4 • Oct. 14, 2001 • Nashville, TN

Joe Nedney recorded the eighth game-winning field goal of his career – and his first as a Titan - with a 49-yard shot in overtime for the deciding points in a 31-28 victory over the Buccaneers in Nashville. The victory ended a threegame losing skid, and the Titans (1-3) avoided matching the franchise's worst start since going 0-4 in 1984. The Titans gained their first victory of the season with RB Eddie George racking up 85 yards and one touchdown and a sharp performance by QB Steve McNair, who completed 15-of-23 passes for 230 yards, while adding 54 yards and a TD on the ground. McNair threw effectively downfield to wide receivers Drew Bennett, Kevin Dyson, and Justin McCareins, who posted a pair of receptions for 70 yards. Rookie CB Andre Dyson posted his first career interception while filling in for injured starter Samari Rolle. Tennessee's defense held the Buccaneers to just 24 rushing yards, including 16 by RB Warrick Dunn. George, meanwhile, combined for 132 yards (85 rushing, 47 receiving). McNair posted his first rushing touchdown since the 1999 season. Bennett posted his first NFL reception with two minutes left in the first half. Dyson's two-point conversion following George's four-yard TD run in the fourth quarter gave Tennessee an even 14 point lead, a margin the Titans would later need as the game went into overtime.

Joe Nedney connected on his second game-winning field goal in as many weeks, propelling the Titans to a 27-24 victory over the Lions on the road. Nedney's 46-yarder improved the Titans to 2-3 on the season and came following a 22-yard scramble by QB Steve McNair to Detroit's 28-yard line. Nedney's field goal was needed after Charlie Batch rallied the Lions to a 24-all tie on his 4th-down, 36yard touchdown pass to WR Desmond Howard, who beat rookie CB Andre Dyson with 1:18 remaining. Before Howard's touchdown, it appeared that Tennessee had put the game away. TE Frank Wycheck had given the Titans a 24-17 lead with 4:41 remaining on his sixyard TD reception from McNair. That touchdown was set up by Wycheck's 29yard reception from McNair to Detroit's seven-yard line just two plays earlier. Early in the third quarter as the Titans were in danger of falling behind 17-9, Henry Ford blocked a Jason Hanson field goal attempt. CB Donald Mitchell scooped up the ball and returned it 69 yards for a touchdown. WR Drew Bennett's two-point conversion gave the Titans a 17-14 lead to turn the game's momentum around. Wycheck established a career-high in receiving yards (100) on seven receptions. Bennett hauled in a career-long 50-yard catch in the second quarter, setting up a Nedney FG before the half. LB Randall Godfrey recorded his third interception with the Titans and the fifth of his career when he picked off a Batch pass in the third quarter.

Terome Bettis rushed for a pair of touchdowns and WR Plaxico Burress hauled in six passes for a career-high 151 yards to help keep Pittsburgh in first place in the AFC Central with a 34-7 victory on Monday Night Football. With their most balanced offensive attack of the season, the Steelers (5-1) won their fifth in a row and beat Tennessee (2-4) for the first time in eight games since 1997. With Eddie George hobbling on a hyper-extended left knee that limited him to 13 yards on 10 carries, the Titans didn't have enough offense to keep up as QB Steve McNair went 14-of-27 for 175 yards and was intercepted twice. Steelers QB Kordell Stewart passed for 234 yards, marking only his second 200-yard passing game in two years. Tennessee's defense held Bettis to 62 yards, holding the Pro Bowl running back below 100 yards for the ninth straight time. But Burris was too much for the Titans. His best catch, a 43-yarder early in the third quarter that set up Bettis' second touchdown run, was a ball he stole out of the hands of cornerback Samari Rolle and reserve safety Perry Phenix. Tied at 7-all late in the second quarter, the Steelers took advantage of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by the Titans on a 4th-down play at Tennessee's 25-yard line. Pittsburgh's offense retained possession and took a 14-7 lead four plays later on Stewart's three-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward.

C teve McNair threw for two touch-Odowns and ran for two more, including a game-winning one-yard plunge with 44 seconds left, as the Tennessee Titans beat Jacksonville, 28-24, extending the Jaguars' losing skid to five games. The Jaguars had one last chance, but DE Jevon Kearse, who tied his career-high with three sacks, took down QB Mark Brunell twice in a row on Jacksonville's final possession. The Titans (3-4) talked of resting RB Eddie George for the first time in his NFL career because of injuries to his knee, thigh and ankle, but he started his 87th consecutive game and carried 22 times for 70 yards, while catching six passes for 45 yards. But it was McNair who had one of the best days of his career, his first game with two TDs through the air and on the ground. He was 27-of-34 for 241 yards passing, with 10 carries for 74 yards. He tossed a 20-yard TD pass to Kevin Dyson and a five-yarder to Derrick Mason and scored on a five-yard run in the third quarter. McNair has passed for nine TDs in his past four games against Jacksonville, with no interceptions. It also was his best rushing performance since the 1999 AFC championship against Jacksonville. CB Samari Rolle posted his 12th career interception and seventh against Brunell on a pass intended for WR Keenan McCardell. Craig Hentrich punted three times, including a 63-yarder, for a 57.3-yard avg., breaking his previous mark of a 54.8-yard avg. vs. the N.Y. Jets in 1994.

Game #8 • Nov. 12, 2001 • Nashville, TN

In one of the most dramatic finishes in vears, the Ravens beat the Titans 16-10 on Monday Night Football by stuffing QB Steve McNair on a quarterback sneak from the one-foot line after a Tennessee touchdown was called back by the officials. With Baltimore up by six, the Titans drove 77 yards to the one-yard line, when McNair completed a four-yard pass to WR Kevin Dyson. As the teams frantically lined up, McNair took the snap and crashed into the end zone as time expired. Officials originally ruled the play a touchdown, but after a long huddle they changed the call to off-sides against the Ravens and ordered a final untimed play that would decide the game. McNair tried to sneak it in, but didn't get close enough as Corey Harris led a massive surge by the middle of Baltimore's defense to keep him out of the end zone. Baltimore (6-3) moved within a game of Pittsburgh in the AFC Central, but Tennessee (3-5) dropped into a tie for last place with Jacksonville. Dyson scored his third touchdown of the season and the 10th of his career in the first quarter as Tennessee took a 7-0 lead. Teammate Derrick Mason established a career-high with 12 receptions for 99 yards, despite playing on a sore ankle. DE Jevon Kearse posted his third multi-sack game of the season with a pair of sacks on Ravens QB Elvis Grbac. Tennessee held a 21:17 to 8:43 time of possession advantage in the first half.

playing with a sore thumb, QB Steve McNair again proved he can play through pain, starting at quarterback and leading the Titans to a 20-7 victory over the Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium. The victory, Tennessee's seventh in a row over Cincinnati and fourth in its last six games, improved the Titans to 4-5 and kept their playoff hopes alive. The Bengals fell to 4-5 after starting the season 2-0. McNair completed 16-of-25 passes for 172 yards and a touchdown, while running four times for 68 yards, the seventh-highest rushing total of his career. LB Randall Godfrey, who was questionable to play after recovering from knee and hand injuries, led a Titans defense that held Pro Bowl RB Corey Dillon to just 38 rushing McNair connected with Kevin yards. Dyson on a perfectly-thrown 28-yard TD pass over the arms of Bengals CB Mark Roman that gave the Titans a 17-7 lead late in the third quarter. Derrick Mason got things going early for Tennessee, returning the opening kickoff a careerlong 101 yards for a touchdown as the Titans jumped out to a 7-0 lead. Mason's return was the third-longest in franchise history and the third-longest allowed in Bengals history. CB Samari Rolle intercepted his second pass of the season, while DE Jevon Kearse posted his ninth sack of the year. LB Keith Bulluck recorded his second interception of the season and the third of his career. It was Bulluck's second straight game with an interception.

The Titans produced a season-high 405 I offensive yards, but it wasn't enough as OB Kordell Stewart turned in one of the finest performances of his career, leading the Steelers to a 34-24 victory in Nashville. Stewart threw for two touchdowns and ran 48 yards for another score as the Steelers (8-2) continued their best start since they opened 9-2 in 1983. Stewart was 19-of-31 for 254 yards passing and ran eight times for 54 yards as Pittsburgh stayed atop the AFC Central. The Titans needed a win to help their playoff hopes, but were unable to maintain a 14-10 halftime lead and lost their second straight home game. QB Steve McNair tried to rally the Titans and his one-yard TD run got them to 27-24 with 8:23 to go. He had the Titans on the move again later, but Steelers CB Chad Scott intercepted a pass and returned it 45 yards for the clinching touchdown. The Titans still had more than three minutes to try and salvage a victory, but they never threatened again. First, they turned the ball over on downs, and then Mike Logan sealed the victory by intercepting McNair with 1:03 left. Kevin Dyson's career-long 68-yard TD reception to open the game was his career-best fifth touchdown of the season. The 68-yard TD pass was the second-longest of Steve McNair's career. Tennessee's defense held RB Jerome Bettis (73 rushing yards) under 100 yards for the 10th straight time. It was enough, though, to give him his sixth straight season with 1,000 yards rushing.

Game #11 • Dec. 2, 2001 • Cleveland, OH

Steve McNair shook off an injury to his left arm by throwing two of his three touchdown passes in the second half, leading Tennessee to a 31-15 win over Cleveland. McNair, who had his arm stepped on in the first half, threw two of his three TD passes to WR Derrick Mason as Tennessee (5-6) held on to its post-season hopes for another week. McNair didn't play most of the second quarter after getting hurt, but by then had given the Titans a 17-0 lead. He sat most of the fourth period and still finished 11-of-17 for 244 yards. McNair hooked up with Mason on scoring passes of 43 and 71 yards, and had a five-yard TD pass to rookie WR Drew Bennett in the third quarter that put the Titans up 24-7. But his ability to play through pain impressed McNair's teammates more than any statistics. McNair was backpedaling after throwing a pass when his arm was hit by Browns LB Jamir Miller, who accidentally stepped on McNair's elbow after the quarterback fell. Tennessee posted its second straight game with a pair of 100-yard receivers (Dyson 6-110 and Mason 3-122). It was the franchise's first time since 1961 (Bill Groman and Charlie Hennigan) and was the third 100-yard receiving game of both Mason's and Dyson's careers. Running backs Eddie George and Skip Hicks each posted 51 rushing vards for Tennessee, which improved to 5-0 vs. the expansion Browns.

s starting QB Daunte Culpepper Awatched from the sideline with a sprained knee, backup Todd Bouman passed for 348 yards and four touchdowns, leading the Vikings to a 42-24 victory over the Tennessee Titans. Vikings also received strong contributions from RB Michael Bennett, who rushed for 113 yards and two touchdowns, and WR Randy Moss, who hauled in seven passes for 158 yards, including a 73-yard touchdown. The Titans, meanwhile, got a season-high 96 rushing yards from RB Eddie George and 64 more yards off the bench by Skip Hicks. But Tennessee's seasonhigh 453 offensive yards was not enough to keep up with the Vikings (5-7), who stayed on the fringes of the NFC playoff hunt by scoring four touchdowns in a 12minute stretch spanning the second and third quarters. OB Steve McNair, playing in pain again, completed 25 of 33 passes for 302 yards and two touchdowns. McNair completed his first nine passes, while RB Eddie George ran for 66 yards before intermission as the Titans jumped to a 10-0 lead. WR Drew Bennett posted a career-high four receptions for 87 yards. RB Skip Hicks rushed for a season-high 64 yards on four carries, including a 43yard run in the fourth quarter. With five catches, TE Frank Wycheck moved past Ken Burrough and Charley Hennigan (409 receptions) into third place on the team's all-time reception list.

Game #13 • Dec. 16, 2001 • Nashville, TN

C teve McNair threw for 282 yards and Itwo touchdowns, and backup RB Skip Hicks rushed 17 times for a career-high 142 yards and a TD as the Titans prevented the Packers from clinching their first playoff berth since 1998 with a surprising 26-20 victory in Nashville. The Packers led 10-2 after the first quarter, but managed just 41 yards of offense through the second and third quarters. Brett Favre came in leading the NFL with 25 touchdown passes, but Tennessee's defense kept him out of synch as he tossed one ball short to Dorsey Levens and even bounced one off Bill Schroeder's shoulder. He fumbled once, was intercepted once and sacked twice. Tennessee's defense did its part, holding Packers RB Ahman Green, the NFC's leading rusher, to a season-low 11 yards on 10 carries. The Titans used the challenge of playing Favre, the league's three-time MVP, to motivate themselves. They responded by holding the Packers to 196 yards passing. Favre, who was 21-of-39 for 201 yards, finally got the Packers going late in the fourth quarter, but it was too late. He capped an 80-yard drive with his second TD pass of the game, a 16-yarder to Schroeder that made it 26-20 with 6:42 to go. But Hicks helped run out the clock in the fourth quarter. He ran 17 times with 128 of his career-high 142 yards in the second half and scored a 22-yard TD with 10:42 to go that provided the winning margin. The first half was highlighted by a 70-yard punt that former Packer Craig Hentrich downed at the Green Bay one-yard line, setting up a safety and a 2-0 lead on the next play for the Titans.

Jormer Oakland Raider Joe Nedney Ricked a 21-yard field goal with 1:48 left, and Sebastian Janikowski missed his third field goal of the night in the final seconds as the Titans pulled off their second upset in as many weeks, surprising the playoff-bound Raiders, 13-10, in a nationally-televised game on ABC. Nedney, a Bay Area native who played at San Jose State, was the Raiders' kicker for three games late in the 1999 season before Oakland cut him in favor of Janikowski, a first-round draft pick. The winning points capped a drive led by QB Steve McNair, who nearly didn't play because of a lower back strain. McNair, 15-of-27 for 178 yards, completed two long third-down passes to WR Derrick Mason during the go-ahead drive. The Raiders, scoreless in the first three quarters, quickly moved the ball inside Tennessee's 30. Janikowski's kick was wide right from 42 yards after a perfect snap and hold. After a scoreless intermission, the Titans drove 65 yards in 12 plays to open the second half, taking the lead on Nedney's 22-yard field goal. Tennessee scored again on its next possession with WR Kevin Dyson catching a 30vard touchdown pass from McNair to cap an 82-yard drive. It was Dyson's sixth TD catch of the season, setting a career-high. Tennessee's defense, meanwhile, held the Raiders to just 77 rushing yards, including 54 by RB Charlie Garner. Titans RB Skip Hicks was solid with 64 yards on 16 carries. Tennessee held the ball 11:10 of the third quarter's 15 minutes with Hicks gaining 33 yards on six rushes.

Game #15 • Dec. 30, 2001 • Nashville, TN

The Titans lost their chance at a win-The Italis lost their charge in hing season when Phil Dawson kicked a 44-yard field goal with 55 seconds left as the Browns overcame a 14point deficit in the fourth quarter for a 41-38 victory in Nashville. Browns QB Tim Couch threw for three touchdowns and a career-high 336 yards, ending Cleveland's four-game losing streak. Cleveland (7-8) had not beaten the Titans in six previous games dating back to the 1995 season, RB Eddie George topped 100 yards rushing (130 yards on 26 carries) for the first time in 2001 and his second touchdown of the game put Tennessee on top 38-24 early in the fourth quarter. Then Couch, the No. 1 pick in the 1999 draft, took control. He led the Browns to 17 unanswered points in the final 9:21, and his four-yard TD pass to WR Kevin Johnson with 5:37 left tied the game at 38. Couch threw for 137 yards in the final quarter, including a 78vard slant to WR Ouincy Morgan, McNair completed his first nine passes, posting a career-high 228 yards through the first half. His 40-yard TD toss to Dyson late in the first quarter put him over 3,000 yards passing for the second time in his sevenyear career. The 79 points scored by both teams represented the highest scoring game at Adelphia Coliseum. The previous high was 71 points on opening day of 1999 in Tennessee's 36-35 victory over Cincinnati.

Neil Rackers kicked three field goals, including the game-winner with 20 seconds left, as the Bengals beat the Titans 23-21 for their second straight victory and their most wins in a season since 1997. The Titans lost a 14-point lead for the second straight week as they finished with their first losing record since coach Jeff Fisher's first full season in 1995. Jon Kitna, who struggled even to get the ball near his receivers early in the game, was 28-of-47 for 340 yards. Corey Dillon ran for two TDs and 87 yards, and Darnay Scott caught nine passes for 152 yards as the Bengals rolled up 436 yards on Tennessee. The Titans couldn't get anything going on offense in the second half with quarterback Steve McNair sidelined by back spasms. He was 11-of-18 for 173 yards, threw for a touchdown and ran for a TD in the first half, but he never took the field after halftime. Backup Neil O'Donnell gave the Titans a 21-20 lead with a 35-yard TD pass to Derrick Mason with 55 seconds left in the third quarter. But they couldn't play keepaway to protect the lead, and Kitna needed only 1:32 to set up Rackers, who also had field goals of 30 and 33 yards. McNair gave the Titans a 14-0 lead with a 41-yard TD pass to Mason in the first quarter and ran in from six yards at the beginning of the second. Dillon tied it at halftime with a twoyard run and a 34-yarder after the Bengals managed only 18 yards of offense in the first quarter. Mason went over 1,000 yards receiving for the first time in his career (1,128).

Jevon Kearse: A True "Sack" Freak

Defensive end Jevon Kearse, who has led the Titans in sacks every year since his rookie season (1999), joined Reggie White and Derrick Thomas as the only defensive players in league history to collect double-digit sacks in each of their first three seasons. Kearse posted 10 sacks in 2001, moving him up to 8th on the club's all-time sack list. Kearse earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth in the process.

1981 - Quarterback George Blanda (1960-66)

Blanda was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFL-record 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns franchise records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also second in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). And, perhaps most importantly to Oilers fans, Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

1986 — Safety Ken Houston (1967-72)

Houston is still considered one of the best safeties in football history. He picked off 49 passes over his 14-season NFL career and earned Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFL-record nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, which ties an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. Originally a ninthround draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston played his final eight seasons with the Washington Redskins. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm at the New York Giants on November 25, 1979. Houston was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

1991 — Running Back Earl Campbell (1978-84)

Perhaps the most recognizable Oiler, Campbell has a monopoly on the team rushing record book. Campbell, fresh off a Heisman Trophy campaign at the University of Texas, was the top pick in the 1978 NFL Draft and dazzled his audience from the outset. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds team records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). He finished his career in New Orleans. In addition, Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell is the only designee this century. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

1996 — Wide Receiver Charlie Joiner (1969-72)

Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, his first four with the Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. Joiner caught 82 of those passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971. Joiner was traded to Cincinnati in 1972, then moved on to San Diego in 1976, where he flourished in the Chargers' wide-open passing attack until 1986. Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, then ranking fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list.

2001 — Guard Mike Munchak (1982-93)

Munchak was the eighth player overall and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 National Football League draft. Selected by the Oilers, the former Penn State standout was an immediate success with the Houston club, earning the starting left guard spot in his first training camp. The 6-3, 281-pound lineman wasted little time establishing himself as one of the premier guards in the

NFL. In 1984, in just his third year in the league, he was named to the first of seven All-AFC teams. That same year he received the first of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Not coincidentally, the Oilers' on-the-field successes increased as Munchak's development and experience increased. From their dismal 0-8-1 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Oilers improved nearly every year that Munchak played. Along the way, the team advanced to the playoffs seven consecutive years (1987-1993) and captured the 1991 and 1993 AFC Central Divisional crowns. Munchak was a devastating blocker and considered the key to an offensive line that kept the Oilers at or near the top of the NFL's offensive statistical categories. In 1988 he led the Oilers' offensive line that gave up just 24 quarterback sacks which was third in the NFL. It was also the fewest sacks allowed by the team in 10 seasons. The following season the offensive line held opponents to no sacks in six games. In 1991, the Oilers offensive line finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in the fewest quarterback sacks allowed. Behind the Munchak-led line, Houston led the NFL in total offense in 1990 and passing offense in 1990 and 1991. The Oilers finished second in points scored in 1990 and second in total offense in 1991. Equally effective as a run blocker, Munchak led the Oilers offensive charge in 1993 as the team finished fourth in the NFL in both average gain per rushing play (4.4) and average gain per offensive play (5.3). Although he suffered from chronic knee problems, Munchak played in 159 regular season games. His 12 seasons with the Oilers tied him for second longest in the franchise's history at the time of his retirement. He became the first player inducted into the Hall of Fame who played his entire career with the Oilers. Long-time teammate Bruce Matthews presented Munchak for induction. Munchak was part of a seven-member class that included linebacker Nick Buoniconti, Buffalo Bills head coach Marv Levy, tackle Jackie Slater, wide receiver Lynn Swann, tackle Ron Yary, and defensive end Jack Youngblood, inducted on Aug. 4, 2001.

In the 41-year history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only four players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43); Elvin Bethea (No. 65); Earl Campbell (No. 34); and Mike Munchak (No. 63).

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea currently holds the Oiler record for most seasons played (16, 1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) stands second. Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

Campbell, the Oilers' all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on August 13, 1987. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds team records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5).

Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on November 6, 1994. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 4, 2001.

First Game 9/12/99 — Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35 (65,272)

Highlights: The Tennessee Titans have recorded a 18-6 home record, including an undefeated 9-0 home mark in 1999. The Coliseum opened its doors in the national spotlight with a preseason victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Aug. 27, 1999, in which country music star Faith Hill sang the National Anthem. Tennessee opened the regular season with a come-from-behind 36-35 victory over Cincinnati. But the most memorable victory of the season came in a 22-16 Wild Card victory over Buffalo on Jan. 8, 2000. In that game, Kevin Dyson fielded a lateral pass from Frank Wycheck with 16 seconds left and raced 75 yards down the sideline for the winning score. That play, which propelled Tennessee into an AFC Divisional showdown at Indianapolis the following week, was immediately dubbed "The Music City Miracle" and will go down as one of the most memorable moments in NFL history. The Titans won 12 consecutive games to open their new stadium, breaking the NFL record.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

August 3-K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announces Houston's entry into the American Football League.

August 15—AFL formally organized with six cities: Los Angeles, New York, Denver, Dallas, Houston and Minneapolis-St Paul.

October 31-Adams names the team "Oilers" - "for sentimental and social reasons."

November 22—AFL conducts first player draft. Oilers select Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon of LSU.

December 8—Oilers sign first players, Don Hitt and Tony Banfield, both of Oklahoma State.

1960

January 1—Oilers sign their first draft choice in LSU's Billy Cannon.

January 3—Oilers name former Cleveland great Lou Rymkus as first head coach.

September 24—Despite a sellout crowd in the first game in the newly-expanded Astrodome, the Oilers lose to the Buffalo Bills, 47-41 in OT.

October 1—The Oilers defeat the Miami Dolphins 39-7 as QB Warren Moon completes a career-best 82.6% of his passes (19/23). In addition, Houston's defense holds Dolphin QB Dan Marino to his worst game as a starter (11/29, 103 yds.).

October 22—The Oilers record the ninth shutout in club history and their first in nine years (spanning 132 games) with a 27-0 whitewash of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Pittsburgh manages just 132 total yards, the fewest yards allowed by Houston in 12 seasons.

December 3—The Oilers win at Pittsburgh 23-16 despite a blizzard and windchill temperatures of -20 degrees. RB Lorenzo White's one-yard run with 21 seconds remaining wins it as the Oilers claim sole possession of first place after the season's 13th game, the latest the team has been in first place in a season since 1967.

December 10—The Oilers honor their 30th Anniversary "Dream Team" while defeating the T.B. Buccaneers 20-17. December 20—G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak are named starters for the February 4 Pro Bowl.

December 23—In a regular season finale battle for the AFC Central Division title, the Oilers lose to the Cleveland Browns 24-20 on RB Kevin Mack's TD with 39 seconds left. The Oilers fall short after battling back from a 17-0 deficit as QB Warren Moon establishes personal bests for attempts (51), completions (32) and yards (414, most since George Blanda's 418 in 1961). Oilers set all-time single season attendance record with 451,027 fans, eclipsing 411,652 in 1978.

December 31—In an AFC Wild Card playoff game, the Oilers lose a 26-23 OT decision to the Pittsburgh Steelers as PK Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal. Houston WR Ernest Givins catches 11 passes for 136 yards and two TDs.

January 6—Jerry Glanville leaves his position as Oilers' head coach by "mutual agreement."

January 9—Jack Pardee signs a five-year contract to become the 14th head coach in Houston Oiler history. Pardee joins the Oilers after enjoying a successful three seasons as the head coach at the University of Houston.

January 12—Head Coach Jack Pardee announces the hiring of three of his University of Houston assistant coaches to Oiler posts. Named to Pardee's Oiler staff are Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy, Offensive Line Coach Bob Young and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 30—The Oilers extend the contract of Executive Vice President/General Manager Mike Holovak. In addition, the team names former LBs Coach Floyd Reese to the newly-created position of Assistant General Manager and promotes Quarterbacks Coach Kevin Gilbride to Offensive Coordinator. Also, the team announces the signing of a multi-year contract that allows KTRH-AM/KLOL-FM to broadcast all Oiler football games beginning in 1990.

March 15-The Oilers announce that Raycom Sports Network has agreed to a multi-year contract to televise Oiler preseason games plus a weekly wrap-up show.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus three TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards. The record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffires. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory. September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards, and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

December 2—Despite losing 13-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31) and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that has been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27-of-45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second-best single-game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffires catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD), which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins and WR Drew Hill.

December 23—The Oilers lose an opportunity to cement their grasp on first place in the AFC Central Division by losing at Cincinnati 40-20. Additionally, QB Warren Moon is lost for the remainder of the season after suffering an open dislocation of his throwing thumb.

December 29—Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams and San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell jointly announce a tentative agreement for the Oilers to hold their annual summer training camp in San Antonio. Also, it is announced that the Oilers will serve as the host team for preseason games in San Antonio's Alamodome when that facility is completed in 1993.

December 30—Led by backup QB Cody Carlson, the Oilers earn a Wild Card playoff berth by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-14 in the Astrodome. Carlson completes 22 of 29 passes for 247 yards and three TDs. With the victory, the Oilers end up in a three-way tie for first place with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the AFC Central.

January 6—The Oilers' 1990 season comes to a close as they are eliminated from the playoffs by the Cincinnati Bengals. Houston loses at Riverfront Stadium 41-14 in an AFC Wild Card game.

January 26—It is announced that Earl Campbell has been voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The announcement is made in Tampa, Florida. Campbell is to be enshrined on July 27.

May 17-The Oilers and the City of San Antonio formally sign six-year contract which will allow the Oilers to hold training camp there. Trinity University is chosen as the host school.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

September 16—In a pre-game ceremony, Earl Campbell receives his Hall of Fame ring from Hall Executive Director Pete Elliott. In the game that follows, the Oilers defeat Kansas City 17-7 to signal the first 3-0 start in franchise history.

October 13—In a 23-20 victory over the Jets at Giants Stadium, WR Haywood Jeffires ties Charlie Hennigan's 30-year-old team record for receptions in a game with 13 (186 yards). QB Warren Moon completes 35-of-50 passes for 423 yards, which is the fifth-best total in team annals. Also, WR Drew Hill surpasses Hennigan's 410 catches to become the all-time leading receiver in Oiler history.

November 3—Despite a 16-13 OT loss at Washington, WR Drew Hill moves past WR Ken Burrough's

6,907 receiving yards to become the Oilers' all-time leader in that category.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons. December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffires becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding points. The loss mars a great performance by Oiler QB Warren Moon, who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165, Moon now has 169). Also, WR Haywood Jeffires catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record, and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20-Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat,

1993

January 3-The Oilers lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first-half touchdowns.

January 29-The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2-NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third-round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth-round selection in 1995.

November 14-WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start, which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years. November 21-RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth consecutive win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.

November 28-In the Oilers' 23-3 Astrodome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.

December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.

December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.

December 19-The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.

December 28-G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the Astrodome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1,002 yards in just eight starts.

January 27 - The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak, who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.

February 8-The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

February 9-Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator, replacing Buddy Ryan, who left the Oilers to become General Manager/Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

April 13-The Minnesota Vikings announce that they have reached an agreement to acquire QB Warren Moon from the Oilers in exchange for draft choices.

August 15-The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 6-0 before 112,376 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The in-house attendance is the largest ever for an NFL game.

September 4-WR Ernest Givins becomes Oilers' all-time receiving yardage leader, surpassing Drew Hill's mark of 7,477. Givins would end the season with 7,935 yards on 542 career receptions.

November 6—G Mike Munchak, who announced his retirement on July 21, 1994 to join the Oilers under the title of Assistant to Football Operations, is honored by Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., by having his #63 jersey retired at halftime ceremonies of Oilers-Steelers game.

November 14-After a 1-9 start, Head Coach Jack Pardee and Assistant Head Coach/Offense Kevin Gilbride are relieved of their duties. Jeff Fisher is elevated to title of Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator. December 24—Houston closes out season with 24-10 victory over the New York Jets for Fisher's first win as a head coach.

January 17—As his first hire, Fisher brings in Jerry Rhome under the title of Offensive Coordinator.

March 3-The Oilers jump into the free-agent pool and sign the NFL's all-time leading kickoff returner, Mel Gray. Gray joins the Oilers after successful stints with the Detroit Lions and New Orleans Saints. March 7-The team announces five-year contract with KHTV/Channel 39 to broadcast Oilers' preseason games. The pact reunites the team and KHTV, which carried Oilers preseason action in '89.

March 23-Houston lures in one of the most coveted unrestricted free agents by signing C Mark Stepnoski from the Dallas Cowboys.

March 28—The Oilers sign veteran QB Chris Chandler from the Rams.

April 22—With the third overall choice in the draft, Houston selects Alcorn State QB Steve McNair.

July 25—QB Steve McNair signs contract at press conference held at Oilers' training camp.

August 11 - Tennessee newspaper reports that Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen is meeting with Oiler officials. Nashville is willing to build new stadium if it will attract a professional team. K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Bredesen execute an agreement that gives the City of Nashville a 70-day exclusive negotiating period with the Houston Oilers to build a stadium and relocate the team:

August 19—Oilers-Chargers preseason game is canceled by NFL after field is deemed unplayable for safety reasons. September 3—The Oilers travel to Jacksonville and defeat the Jaguars 10-3 in the expansion team's inaugural game. September 24—QB Chris Chandler connects on 23-of-26 passes for 352 yards and four TDs, leading Oilers to a 38-28 win over the Bengals at Riverfront Stadium. Chandler's 88.46 completion percentage misses the NFL record by one completion. Chandler, who hooked up with rookie WR Chris Sanders on TD passes of 58 and 46 yards, is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

November 2—Oilers' long-time equipment assistant Bill "Mojo" Lackey passes away after a massive stroke.

November 5-Oilers win 37-10 over Browns and dedicate game to "Mojo" and his family. The win marks the Oilers' largest margin of victory at Cleveland since a 40-10 decision on Oct. 12, 1975.

November 12-K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and the Oilers announce the establishment of the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award, which would be given to the player, coach or front office staff member that best exemplifies the qualities of the former equipment assistant. A $10,000 check is given to the winner to be awarded to charity in his or her name.

November 16-K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen sign a relocation agreement to move the Oilers the Tennessee.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merril Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon, with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR JJ. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes, who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffires is penalized for a face mask infraction, which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimnage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson. He fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

October 6, 1996 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Bengals win the toss. The Bengals go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Oilers the ball inside their own 20-yard line. On second down at the Oilers' 16-yard line, QB Chris Chandler connects with WR Willie Davis on a 37-yard pass to move into Cincinnati territory. Six plays later, K Al Del Greco hits from 49 yards out for the winning score at 4:22 of OT.

August 31, 1997 - at Tennessee 24, Oakland 21: Oilers win the toss. Oilers go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 33-yard line. The Raiders also go three-and-out and punt the ball to the Oilers. Tennessee takes over the ball at its own 35-yard line. On second-and-eight, QB Steve McNair connects with Frank Wycheck for 21 yards to the Raiders 42-yard line. Again on second down, McNair finds Wycheck, this time for 10 yards to the Raiders 32-yard line. On the next play, McNair scrambles for an 11-yard gain. RB Eddie George gains six yards before Al Del Greco hits the game-winner from 33 yards away with 8:03 left on the clock in overtime. The win is the Oilers first since relocating to Tennessee from Houston.

September 7, 1997 - at Miami 16, Tennessee 13: Dolphins win the toss. The Oilers kick to Dolphin return man Irving Spikes, who returns the kickoff 48 yards to the Oilers 45-yard line. On second down, Dan Marino hits RB Bernie Parmalee for a 16-yard gain. Again on second down, Marino connects with Fred Barnett for a 9-yard gain. On the play, Oiler DB Tomur Barnes was flagged for an unnecessary roughness penalty which moved the ball to the Oilers 11-yard line. On the next play, Olindo Mare knocks home a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 remaining in overtime.

September 10, 2000 - at Tennessee 17, Kansas City 14: Titans win the toss. The Chiefs kick to Derrick Mason, who returns the kick 28 yards to the Tennessee 29-yard line. A face mask penalty moves the ball to the 34-yard line. On third-and-eight, QB Neil O'Donnell passes to Kevin Dyson for 27 yards. A 26-yard pass to Frank Wycheck on the next play is negated by a holding penalty. Eddie George then rushes 29 yards to the Kansas City 18-yard line. On the next play, Al Del Greco kicks a 36-yard field goal with 12:02 remaining in overtime. October 14, 2001 - at Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 28: Buccaneers win the toss. Tennessee's defense forces a punt. Tampa Bay kicks to Joe Walker, who returns the kick eight yards to Tampa Bay's 46. Steve McNair passes to Drew Bennett for 14 yards. Eddie George rushes for one yard. McNair pass is incomplete to Kevin Dyson. George rushes up middle for minus one yard. Joe Nedney kicks a 49-yard field goal with 13:08 remaining in overtime.

SIDELINE

BAPTIST SPORTS PARK

On May 15, 1998, Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., selected a 31-acre site at the MetroCenter complex in Nashville as the team's permanent practice location. Since that time, a beautiful multi-million dollar facility has been built by Nashville-based Powell Building Group on the property, located just north of downtown Nashville about five miles from the Coliseum.

The team moved into the facility on August 26, 1999, the day after training camp completed and the day before the first preseason game at the Coliseum. The 80,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art building contains lockers, weight rooms, meeting rooms and offices for coaches, players and administrative staff. The building also features an auditorium with seating for 125 people, as well as other meeting rooms.

Baptist Sports Park contains state-of-the-art facilities for the team's players, coaches and staff.

The weight training center and rehabilitation treatment facility sets the model for all professional sports. Designed to exceed the standards of all previous training and practice facilities, the new Titans' complex will be the envy of professional training centers for decades.

The facility boasts three outdoor practice fields with natural grass, plus an enclosed field with artificial turf. Logistically, each field is identical to the Coliseum, from the 100-yard length to the geographic orientation. The longitudinal center of each field is 24 degrees west of north, just like the field at the Coliseum, enabling the Titans to practice in the same slanting sunlight they face on Sundays.

The site, selected from more than 60 sites reviewed, was purchased from MetroCenter properties. The new facility occupies a peninsula that joins into the lake across from the Fountain Square commercial development. Among the leading builders in middle Tennessee, Powell was chosen for its state-of-the-art construction planning and building techniques.

Titans Radio will take to the air this season with a new official station in Nashville as well as new outlets across the Mid South. 103 WKDF, Music City's Number One For New Country and the Legends, began its tenure as the new official flagship station of Titans Radio this spring. 103 WKDF will carry all Titans Radio programming, both in and out of season.

"The excitement of Carl P.
Mayfield and WKDF's entire airstaff about us has been evident for years,"
Titans Executive Vice President Don MacLachlan said. "Now, we get to work directly with them as our flagship station. It's a fantastic opportunity for everyone involved! I can't think of 103 WKDF will begin its Titans gameday coverage at 6 a.m. every Sunday morning with previews of the game, a look at other NFL action, weather and traffic information and more. For noon games, expanded pre-game coverage begins with the Titans Radio broadcast team at 8:45 a.m. 103 WKDF will also offer expanded postgame coverage -- a full two hours after every game.

WKDF."

a better place to be for the Titans than 103

Titans Radio will also bring its awardwinning broadcast team of Mike Keith, Pat Ryan and Larry Stone to new radio partners in Savannah and Fayetteville, TN as well as Princeton, KY and Winona, MS. The footprint of Titans Radio now extends across six states and includes 68 stations in 60 markets.

"Over the last several years we have worked hard to add heritage radio stations," Titans Radio General Manager Kyle Denzel said. "Our additions this offseason give us an incredible lineup of the Mid South's best radio stations."

New Titans Radio listeners will hear familiar voices as Keith, Ryan and Stone begin their fourth season together as the Titans broadcast team. Keith joined the team as its director of broadcasting in 1998, moving to the role as "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Keith began his broadcast career with Knoxville's WIVK/WNOX Radio and the Vol Radio Network where his coverage of University of Tennessee sports netted him dozens of awards including broadcasting's most coveted prize, the Edward R. Murrow Award. Keith has been instrumental in the team's growth, visiting all areas of the Mid South to speak to civic clubs and work with Titans Radio partners.

Titans fans love Pat Ryan's sharp, nononsense commentary as he calls on his twelve seasons as an NFL quarterback. Ryan played collegiately at the University of Tennessee, but really gained acclaim for his play as a New York Jet. Among Ryan's accomplishments, a 35-15 wild card win over the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986 in which Ryan got the start midweek and answered with three touchdowns in the playoff victory.

In his sixth season as executive producer/gameday host, Stone has helped build

TITANS RADIO NETWORK

Titans Radio into one of the largest networks in the NFL. Stone's broadcasting career began at age 16 in his hometown of North Wilkesboro, NC before moving to WCHL and the Tar Heel Sports Network in Chapel Hill, NC. As program director, Stone led WCHL to 23 Associated Press awards for news and sports.

Keith and Stone were two of the three finalists this spring for the Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year Award presented by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters. Keith won the award for a second consecutive year. Titans Radio also boasts the Mid South's Titans Radio also boasts the Mid South's most experienced set of analysts led by sideline reporter Cody Allison, whose work from the field has gained leaguewide accolades. One of the league's most connected reporters, the Tennessean's Jeff Legwold, will again provide pre-game analysis. Former University of Tennessee and Vanderbilt coach Doug Mathews will take calls from fans after every Titans game.

In addition to its game day lineup, Titans Radio offers fans an exclusive chance to talk to head coach Jeff Fisher every Tuesday night at 6 p.m. central on the Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show. The coach joins the Keith at O'Charley's in Brentwood for a full hour of Titans talk at 877-TITANS-1.

Weekday mornings and afternoons, Keith and Stone report on the latest Titans news. The Titans Report can be heard on 103 WKDF mornings at 9:30 a.m. and afternoons at 3:30 p.m. Times vary by market so fans should check local listings. The two also contribute to the network's web site, TitansRadio.Com, with columns and stories on the upcoming game.

Titans Radio is a joint venture of Citadel Broadcasting Company and Capitol Radio Networks. Kyle Denzel is the network's general manager.

2002 TITANS CARAVAN

For the fifth consecutive year, the Tennessee Titans Caravan ventured across the Mid-South, making 64 stops over two weeks in April. Sixteen players participated and were joined by T-Rac, staff members and the Titans Radio broadcast team of Mike Keith and Larry Stone.

Titans Caravan V began with a special visit to Ft. Campbell, Ky., where members of the team paid tribute to soldiers of the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne Division. Jeff Fisher, Eddie George, Brad Hopkins, Billy Volek and Joe Nedney all took part, as did the Tennessee Titans Cheerleaders Show Troupe.

The Caravan also visited an unprecedented 27 schools during its tour of Kentucky, Alabama and Tennessee. An estimated total of 13,500 students were able to take part in the "Making Good Choices Program," which delivers a positive message through skits by T-Rac and a question and answer session with a Titans player. The remaining public stops offered a way for Titans fans to meet members of the team and receive posters and autographs free of charge.

Through close partnerships with Titans Radio, Kroger, Nashville Easy Livin' Country RV, and each community in which the Caravan stops, the team's annual tour is unmatched throughout the NFL. Since 1998, Titans Caravan has blossomed into a highly-anticipated annual event for many cities in the region. Additionally, new cities are being added to the list of stops every year. Twenty-two new locations were visited during Titans Caravan V with more to be added in the coming years.

TITANS ON THE AIR

Preseason Television

For the sixth consecutive season, Titans preseason games can be seen across three states in the region, including in Nashville on ABC Affiliate WKRN-TV (Channel 2). Channel 2 will televise the Titans' August 10 tilt with the St. Louis Rams, the August 23 game at Minnesota and the August 30 matchup with the Packers in Green Bay. Channel 2 Sports Director John Dwyer will handle the play-by-play with Nashville sports talk show host George Plaster providing commentary.

The Titans other preseason contest will be nationally-televised on ESPN (Aug. 15 vs. Oakland).

"Monday Night Live with Jeff Fisher" on Channel 2: Mondays at 7:00 p.m. (CST)

Dwyer also will host "Monday Night Live with Jeff Fisher" which can be seen live from Opry Mills in Nashville every Monday night on Channel 2 throughout the season. The show, newly expanded to one hour in primetime, features highlights from the game, complete game evaluation from Coach Fisher, special features, and a different Titans player each week. Local high school prep standouts will be honored each week, in addition to a Titans player or staff member for their charitable contributions to the greater Nashville community.

Hosted by WKRN Sports Director John Dwyer, 'Monday Night Live With Jeff Fisher' airs during the season Monday nights on Channel 2 in Nashville.

Mike Keith hosts a weekly radio show with Titans head coach Jeff Fisher throughout the season.

Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show

In addition to its game day lineup, Titans Radio offers fans an exclusive chance to talk to head coach Jeff Fisher every Tuesday night at 6 p.m. (CST) on the Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show. The coach joins the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith at O'Charley's in Brentwood for a full hour of Titans talk at 877-TITANS-1.

TITANS IN THE COMMUNITY

Titans Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. (right) presents an $11,000 grant to Nashville Family Shelter's Anna Sternheimer, winner of the 2001 Titans Community Quarterback Award, which recognizes outstanding volunteers for their efforts with charitable organizations throughout the state. Ten finalists received a total of $25,000 for their efforts. Mark Desmond (left) of United Way of Metropolitan Nashville also participated in the program.

The fifth annual Titans caravan made 64 stops in 61 cities throughout the Mid-South from April 5-20. "Caravan V" included stops at 27 schools delivering the "Making Good Choices" program to approximately 13,500 students.

Head Coach Jeff Fisher joined the team of Dr. David Kemp to win the fourth annual Titans Charity Golf Classic at Legends Club of Tennessee. Titans President Jeff Diamond (far right) presented the trophy to the winning team.

Veteran Bruce Matthews watches as a young guest from Tennessee Department of Children's Services opens his gift from the future Hall of Famer. Matthews and his teammates presented gifts to the kids during a very special visit from the children, who due to various circumstances, were all in the custody of the state.

The Titans hosted a Christmas Party for children from the Tennessee
Department of Children's Services at Baptist Sports
Park. The children were "adopted for the day" by players and staff, many of whom shopped for specific requests from the children.

TITANS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Titans and Kroger teamed up for Habitat for Humanity for the fourth consecutive year to build a home for a deserving family. A portion of the funding came from proceeds of a cookbook produced by the Titans Women's Association and Kroger. Titans players and staff joined Kroger employees and other community volunteers in constructing the home.

DE Jevon Kearse, as well as every player on the squad, makes visits to Baptist Hospital and area schools throughout the year.

An annual highlight of the Titans caravan is a visit to St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis. DE Kevin Carter, T-Rac, and the caravan staff spent several hours visiting with patients and families.

The Titans Foundation presented a $25,000 grant to Fannie Battle Day Home to help defray costs of a new bus for the children. Founded more than 100 years ago, Fannie Battle serves disadvantaged families in East Nashville.

The Titans joined forces with fans throughout the season to support numerous worthy causes. The U.S. Marine Corps Reserve and the Titans teamed up for the annual "Toys for Tots" drive when fans entering the stadium prior to a game donated toys for needy children. The fans were also generous in drives supporting the Second Harvest Food Bank, cellular phones to be donated to victims of sexual and physical abuse, and winter coats for area shelters.

titans in the community

Titans Owner Bud Adams hosted an evening "Inside the Huddle" June 11 to raise funds for The Titans Foundation. The event featured a reception, steak & shrimp dinner, highlight film premier and a complete tour of Baptist Sports Park.

Country music sensation Brad Paisley joined the festivities and was a live guest on the Jeff Fisher Show on 103 KDF radio, the new Titans Radio new flagship station. Paisley, a big Titans fan, shared a moment with the Titans cheerleading squad during his visit.

On hand for "Inside the Huddle" (from left) were Kevin Dyson, Kevin Carter, Bud Adams, Jeff Fisher, Craig Hentrich and Frank Wycheck. Eddie George was also present but not pictured.

Bud Adams autographs a football for Linda Gilbert during the Titans Charity Golf Classic "Appreciation Luncheon." Gilbert later received a $10,000 grant for Taft Youth Development Center.

Bud Adams presented $70,000 to representatives of 13 charities during the Golf Tournament Luncheon, raising the four-year total of the event to $362,000! Organizations receiving proceeds from the 2002 event were United Way of Metropolitan Nashville, Taft Youth Development Center (Pikeville, TN), Community IMPACT, Faith Family Medical Clinic, Martha O'Bryan Center, Outlook Nashville, Plenty International/Kids to the Country, Sumner Special Housing (Hendersonville, TN), You Have the Power/Know How to Use It, PENCIL Foundation, CASA, Rape & Sexual Abuse Center and Second Harvest Food Bank.

Impligement Syndrome - Fine ting together of the supraspinatus muscle and other sort disace in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and

strengthens joints

Strengthens joints.

Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disabilicommonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads)- The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacrolliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.
Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.
Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrael fixation or immobility.

Spanin - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trachea - Alat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed. Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side. Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trau-

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

titans media policy

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Media Relations, Tennessee Titans, 460 Great Circle Rd., Nashville, TN 37228, or by fax to (615) 565-4105. REQUESTS MUST BE RECEIVED AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A HOME GAME.

PARKING: Parking for Titans games also must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game day. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked adjacent to Gate 6. A parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL: The media entrance is located at Gate 6. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window at Gate 6. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a special vest and corresponding credential. Photographers on a game-by-game basis will have a different credential. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Titans' and visitors' interview rooms after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE LOCKER ROOM. With five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, take the media elevator or stairs to the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Jeff Fisher's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Titans interview room across from the Titans' locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult-box behind the camera platform to ease congestion at the podium. Players will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitors' interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (615) 565-4450 (home p.r.) and (615) 565-4452 (visiting p.r.).

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is located at the Titans' practice facility at MetroCenter. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Titans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. The phone number in the media workroom is (615) 565-4116.

JEFF FISHER INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jeff Fisher will conduct a weekly news conference at 2:30 p.m. on Mondays in the Practice Facility Auditorium. He will also be available following practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Titans' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Tuesday is the players' day off. The locker room is open to the media on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Titans' Media Relations office. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone. Please call in advance when possible to schedule.
